One Embankment Place is a commercial office building constructed in the early 1990's. The United Kingdom's first "air rights" building constructed on top of an existing structure. One Embankment Place was built over Charing Cross Station and the 40,000 sq ft. (3,716 sq m) floor space has since been occupied by PWC, whose office is on the group floor below the busy station and floors one to nine above."

Conference Schedule

Saturday, June 17, 2017

08:45 – 16:00

III NextGen Tour:

Panoramic Tour of London

(Ticketed Event, NextGen Guests are Welcome)

Meet in the Rosewood Hotel Lobby: 08:30

The charter double decker bus departs promptly at 09:00 from the Rosewood Hotel. Participants will enjoy a Panoramic tour of London's most famous sites, including Buckingham Palace, 10 Downing Street, Trafalgar Square, St. Paul's Cathedral, the river Thames, London Bridge, Tower Bridge, the Tower of London, the Houses of Parliament and Big Ben. This will be followed by a private boat trip on the river Thames where finger food and beverages are provided. Everyone will stop for free time at Borough Market, London's most renowned food market, a source of exceptional British and International produce. The tour will then proceed to Covent Garden, famous for its shops, street performers, bars, restaurants, theatres and the Royal Opera House. Jugglers, mime artists and musicians entertain everyday come rain or shine.

Note: Lunch on your own at Borough Market. Tour will end at Covent Garden where participants will return to the Rosewood Hotel at 16:00.

USD $125 per person maximum 80 participants.

For those who wish to continue on, we are arranging a London Pub Crawl which will commence at 16:00 – 22:30. You will be taken around to some popular Bars & Clubs in the London area.

The London Pub Crawl is rated as one of the top Night-life tourist activities in London. For those who do not wish to participate in the London Pub Crawl, participants will be brought back to the Rosewood Hotel.
