A BILL FOR AN ACT

To amend 12 PNC to include a new chapter 10 to establish a new corporations law; and for related purposes.

THE PEOPLE OF PALAU REPRESENTED IN THE OLBIIL ERA KELULAU DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Table of Contents:

Section 1. Short Title........................................................................................................1
Section 2. Amendment .................................................................................................1
Chapter 10- Registered Corporations ...........................................................................1
Subchapter1- General Provisions ................................................................................1
§1001. Definitions........................................................................................................1
§1002 Filing documents ..............................................................................................4
§1003 Forms ................................................................................................................5
§1004 Filing, service, and copying fees .......................................................................5
§1005 Effective time and date of documents ..............................................................6
§1006 Correcting filed documents ...............................................................................7
§1007 Filing duty of registrar .....................................................................................7
§1008 Appeal from registrar’s refusal to file document ............................................8
§1009 Evidentiary effect of copy of filed document ..................................................9
§1010 Certificate of existence ....................................................................................9
§1011 Penalty for signing false document ................................................................9
§1012 Notice ..............................................................................................................9
Subchapter2- Registrar .............................................................................................11
§1021 Registrar office created; duties ........................................................................11
§1022 Same; Powers ..................................................................................................11
Subchapter3- Incorporation .......................................................................................12
§1031 Number of shareholders ................................................................................12
§1032 Incorporators ....................................................................................................12
§1033 Articles of incorporation ................................................................................12
§1034 Incorporation ....................................................................................................14
§1035 Liability for pre-incorporation transactions .....................................................14
§1036 Organization of registered corporation ...........................................................14
§1037 Bylaws ..............................................................................................................15
§1038 Emergency bylaws .........................................................................................15
Subchapter4- Purposes and Powers ............................................................................16
§1041 Registered corporation purposes .....................................................................16
§1042 Registered corporation general powers ..........................................................17
§1043 Emergency powers ........................................................................................18
§1044 Ultra vires ........................................................................................................19
Subchapter 5 - Name .................................................................................................19
§1051 Corporate name ..............................................................................................19
§1052 Reserved name ................................................................................................21
Subchapter6 - Office and Agent ................................................................................21
§1061 Registered office and registered agent .............................................................21
§1062 Change of registered office or registered agent ..............................................21
§1063 Resignation of registered agent ........................................................................22
§1064 Service on registered corporation .................................................................22
Subchapter7- Shares ..................................................................................................23
§1071 Authorized shares .................................................................23
§1072 Terms of class or series determined by board of directors ....24
§1073 Issued and outstanding shares ...................................................25
§1074 Fractional shares .................................................................25
§1075 Subscription for shares before incorporation .........................26
§1076 Issuance of shares .................................................................26
§1077 Liability of shareholders .......................................................28
§1078 Share dividends .................................................................28
§1079 Share options .................................................................28
§1080 Form and content of certificates ...........................................29
§1081 Shares without certificates ...................................................29
§1082 Restriction on transfer of shares and other securities..............50
§1083 Expense of issue .................................................................31
§1084 Shareholders’ preemptive rights ...........................................31
§1085 Registered corporation’s acquisition of its own shares ..........32
§1086 Distributions to shareholders ...............................................32

Subchapter 8- Shareholders .............................................................52
§1092 Special meeting .................................................................34
§1093 Court-ordered meeting .......................................................35
§1094 Action without meeting ......................................................36
§1095 Notice of meeting ..............................................................37
§1096 Waiver of notice ...............................................................38
§1097 Record date .................................................................38
§1098 Conduct of the meeting .....................................................39
§1099 Shareholders’ list for meeting .............................................39
§1100 Voting entitlement of shares ..............................................40
§1101 Proxies ...............................................................40
§1102 Shares held by nominees ...................................................40
§1103 Registered corporation’s acceptance of votes ......................42
§1104 Quorum and voting requirements for voting groups ..........43
§1105 Action by single and multiple voting groups .................44
§1106 Greater quorum or voting requirements ..........................44
§1107 Voting for directors; cumulative voting ..........................45
§1108 Voting trusts .................................................................45
§1109 Voting agreements ..........................................................46
§1110 Shareholders agreements ..................................................46
§1111 Subchapter definitions .....................................................49
§1112 Standing .................................................................49
§1113 Demand .................................................................49
§1114 Stay of proceedings .......................................................50
§1115 Dismissal .................................................................50
§1116 Discontinuance of settlement .............................................51
§1117 Payment of Expenses ...................................................51

Directors and Officers .................................................................52
§1121 Requirement for and duties of board of directors ..............52
§1122 Qualifications of directors ..................................................52
§1123 Number and election of directors ......................................52
§1124 Election of directors by certain classes of shareholders ....52
§1125 Terms of directors generally .............................................52
§1126 Staggered terms for directors ............................................53
§1127 Resignation of directors .....................................................53
§1128 Removal of directors by shareholders ................................53
§1129 Removal of directors by judicial proceedings .................54
§1130 Vacancy on board ...........................................................54
§1131 Compensation of directors ..............................................55
§1132 Meetings .................................................................55
§1133 Action without meeting ...................................................55
§1134 Notice of meeting ..........................................................56
§1135 Waiver of notice ...........................................................56
§1136 Quorum and voting ..........................................................56
§1137 Committees ...............................................................57
§1138 Standards of conduct for directors ..................................................57
§1139 Standards of liability for directors ..................................................59
§1140 Directors liability for unlawful distributions ......................................62
§1141 Required officers .............................................................................62
§1142 Duties of officers .............................................................................63
§1143 Standards of conduct for officers ....................................................63
§1144 Resignation and removal of officers .................................................64
§1145 Contract rights of officers .................................................................64

Subchapter 11- Idemnification .................................................................64
§1151 Subchapter Definitions ....................................................................64
§1152 Permissible indemnification .............................................................66
§1153 Mandatory indemnification ..............................................................67
§1154 Advance for expenses .....................................................................67
§1155 Court-ordered indemnification and advance for expenses. ...............68
§1156 Determination shall be made ............................................................69
§1157 Officers ..........................................................................................70
§1158 Insurance .........................................................................................71
§1159 Variation by corporate action; application of subchapter ...................71
§1160 Exclusivity of subchapter .................................................................72

Subchapter 12- Directors’ Conflict Interest Transactions .........................72
§1161 Subchapter definitions .....................................................................72
§1162 Judicial action ..................................................................................74
§1163 Directors’ action ...............................................................................74
§1164 Shareholders’ action .........................................................................74

Subchapter 13- (Reserved)

Subchapter 14- Amendment of Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws ..........77
§1181 Authority to amend ..........................................................................77
§1182 Amendment before issuance of shares .................................................77
§1183 Amendment by board of directors and shareholders .......................77
§1184 Voting on amendments by voting groups ...........................................78
§1185 Amendment by board of directors .....................................................79
§1186 Articles of amendment ......................................................................80
§1187 Restated articles of incorporation. ......................................................81
§1188 Amendment pursuant to reorganization ..............................................82
§1189 Effect of amendment .........................................................................82
§1190 Amendment by board of directors or shareholders ...........................82
§1192 Bylaws increasing quorum or voting requirement for shareholders .......83

Subchapter 15- Merger and Share Exchange ..............................................84
§1201 Definitions .......................................................................................84
§1202 Merger .............................................................................................84
§1203 Share exchange ................................................................................86
§1204 Action on plan ..................................................................................88
§1205 Merger between parent and subsidiary or between subsidiaries ..........90
§1206 Articles of merger or share exchange ...............................................90
§1207 Effect of merger or share exchange ..................................................91
§1208 Abandonment of merger or share exchange .....................................93

Subchapter 16- Sale of Assets ..................................................................94
§1211 Sale of assets in regular course of business and mortgage of assets .........94
§1212 Sale of assets other than in regular course of business .......................94

Subchapter 17- Dissenters; Rights .............................................................96
§1221 Definitions .......................................................................................96
§1222 Rights to dissent ................................................................................96
§1223 Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners .......................................98
§13.20. Notice of dissenters’ rights .............................................................98
§1225 Notice of intent to demand payment ............................................98
§1226 Dissenters’ notice ..........................................................................99
§1227 Duty to demand payment ..............................................................100
§1228 Share restrictions .........................................................................100
§1229 Payment .......................................................................................100
§1230 Failure to take action ....................................................................101
§1231 After-acquired shares .....................................................................101
§1232 Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment of offer ..........101
§1233 Court action ..................................................................................102
§1234 Court costs and counsel fees ........................................................103

Subchapter 18 - Dissolution ........................................................................104
§1241 Dissolution by incorporators or initial directors .........................104
§1242 Dissolution by board of directors and shareholders .................104
§1243 Articles of dissolution .................................................................105
§1244 Revocation of dissolution ............................................................105
§1245 Effect of dissolution .....................................................................106
§1246 Known claims against dissolved registered corporation .... .........107
§1247 Unknown claims against dissolved registered corporation ..........108
§1248 Court proceedings .......................................................................109
§1249 Director duties ..............................................................................110
§1250 Grounds for administrative dissolution ......................................110
§1251 Procedure for and effect of administrative dissolution .......... ...111
§1252 Reinstatement following administrative dissolution .................111
§1253 Appeal from denial of reinstatement .........................................112
§1254 Grounds for judicial dissolution ....................................................113
§1255 Procedure for judicial dissolution .................................................113
§1256 Receivership or custodianship ......................................................114
§1257 Decree of Dissolution ...................................................................115
§1258 (Reserved) ...................................................................................116
§1259 Deposit with National Treasury ....................................................116

Subchapter 19- (Reserved) ......................................................................116
§1271 Corporate records ........................................................................116
§1272 Inspection of records by shareholders .........................................117
§1273 Scope of inspection rights .............................................................118
§1274 Court-ordered inspection ............................................................119
§1275 Inspection of records by directors .................................................119
§1276 Exception to notice requirement ..................................................120
§1277 Financial statements for shareholders ........................................120
§1278 Annual report for registrar ...........................................................120
§1279 Other reports to shareholders ......................................................123

Subchapter 21- Transition Provisions .......................................................123
§1281 Severability ..................................................................................123

Section 3. Authorization and Appropriation of Funds ............................123
Section 4. Effective date. ........................................................................123
SEVENTH OLBIIL ERA KELULAU
First Regular Session, January 2005

A BILL FOR AN ACT

To amend 12 PNC to include a new chapter 10 to establish a new corporations law; and for related purposes.

THE PEOPLE OF PALAU REPRESENTED IN THE OLBIIL ERA KELULAU DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1.  Short Title.  This Act shall be known and may be cited as the “Palau Registered Corporation Act of 2004.”

Section 2.  Amendment.  12 PNC is hereby amended to add a new Chapter 10, as follows:

“Chapter 10

Registered Corporations

Subchapter 1

General Provisions

In this chapter:

(a) “Articles of incorporation” include amended and restated articles of incorporation and articles of merger.

(b) “Authorized shares” means the shares of all classes a registered corporation is authorized to issue.

(c) “Conspicuous” means so written that a reasonable person against whom the writing is to operate should have noticed it.

(d) “Corporation” without a qualifying adjective generally includes the terms “registered corporation,” “domestic corporation,” and “foreign corporation.”

(e) “Deliver” or “delivery” means any method of delivery used in conventional commercial practice, including delivery by hand, mail, commercial delivery, and electronic transmission.

(f) “Distribution” means a direct or indirect transfer of money or other property, except its own shares, or incurrence of indebtedness by a registered corporation to or for the benefit of its shareholders in respect of any of its shares. A distribution may be in the form of a declaration or payment of a dividend; a purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of shares; a distribution of indebtedness; or otherwise.

(g) “Domestic corporation” means a corporation for profit incorporated under the laws of the Republic, but that is not a registered corporation under this chapter.

(h) “Electronic transmission” or “electronically transmitted” means any process of communication not directly involving the physical transfer of paper that is suitable for the retention, retrieval, and reproduction of information by the recipient.

(i) “Employee” includes an officer of a corporation but not a director. A director may accept duties that make him also an employee.

(j) “Entity” includes registered corporation, domestic corporation, and foreign corporation; not-for-profit corporation; profit and not-for-profit unincorporated association; business trust, estate, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability company, trust, and two or more persons having a joint or common economic interest; and state, United States, and foreign government.

(k) “Foreign corporation” means a corporation for profit incorporated under a law other than the law of the Republic.

(l) “Governmental subdivision” includes authority, county, district, and municipality.

(m) “Individual” includes the estate of an incompetent or deceased individual.

(n) “Person” includes individual and entity.

(o) “Principal office” means the office, either within or outside of the Republic, so designated in the annual report where the principal executive offices of a registered corporation are located.

(p) “Principal officer” means the president, chief executive officer, vice president, chief operations officer, treasurer/chief financial officer, or secretary.
(q) “Proceeding” includes civil suit and criminal, administrative, and investigatory action.

(r) “Record date” means the date established under this Chapter on which a registered corporation determines the identity of its shareholders and their shareholdings for purposes of this chapter. The determinations shall be made as of the close of business on the record date unless another time for doing so is specified when the record date is fixed.

(s) “Registered corporation” means a corporation for profit incorporated under or subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(t) “Registrar” means the registrar of registered corporations appointed by the President under section 1021.

(u) “Secretary” means the corporate officer to whom the board of directors has delegated responsibility under section 1141(c) for custody of the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors and of the shareholders and for authenticating records of the registered corporation.

(v) “Shares” means the units into which the proprietary interests in a registered corporation are divided.

(w) “Shareholder” means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a registered corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a registered corporation.

(x) “Sign” or “signature” includes any manual, facsimile, conformed or electronic signature.

(y) “State,” when referring to a part of the United States, includes a state and commonwealth (and their agencies and governmental subdivisions) and a territory and insular possession (and their agencies and governmental subdivisions) of the United States.

(z) “Subscriber” means a person who subscribes for shares in a registered corporation, whether before or after incorporation.
“United States” includes district, authority, bureau, commission, department, and any other agency of the United States.

“Voting group” means all shares of one or more classes or series that under the articles of incorporation or this chapter are entitled to vote and be counted together collectively on a matter at a meeting of shareholders. All shares entitled by the articles of incorporation or this chapter to vote generally on the matter are for that purpose a single voting group.

“Voting power” means the current power to vote in the election of directors.

§ 1002 Filing documents.

(a) A document must satisfy the requirements of this section and of any other section that adds to or varies these requirements, to be entitled to filing by the registrar.

(b) The document must contain the information required by this chapter. It may contain other information as well.

(c) The document must be typewritten or printed or, if electronically transmitted, it must be in a format that can be retrieved or reproduced in typewritten or printed form.

(d) The document must be in the English language. A corporate name need not be in English if written in English letters or Arabic or Roman numerals.

(e) The document must be executed:

(1) by the chairman of the board of directors of a registered corporation, by its president, or by another of its officers;

(2) if directors have not been selected or the registered corporation has not been formed, by an incorporator; or

(3) if the registered corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other court-appointed fiduciary, by that fiduciary.

(f) The person executing the document shall sign it and state beneath or opposite his signature his name and the capacity in which he signs. The document may but need not contain a corporate seal, attestation, acknowledgment, or verification.
(g) If the registrar has prescribed a mandatory form for the document under section 1003, the document must be in or on the prescribed form.

(h) The document must be delivered to the office of the registrar for filing. Delivery may be made by electronic transmission if and to the extent permitted by the registrar. If it is filed in typewritten or printed form and not transmitted electronically, the registrar may require one exact or conformed copy to be delivered with the document.

(i) When the document is delivered to the registrar for filing, the correct filing fee, and any franchise tax, license fee, or penalty required to be paid therewith by this chapter or other law must be paid or provision for payment made in a manner permitted by the registrar.

§ 1003 Forms.

(a) The registrar may prescribe and furnish on request forms for:

(1) an application for a certificate of existence; and

(2) the annual report. If the registrar so requires, use of these forms is mandatory.

(b) The registrar may prescribe and furnish on request forms for other documents required or permitted to be filed by this chapter but their use is not mandatory.

§ 1004 Filing, service, and copying fees.

(a) The registrar shall collect the following fees when the documents described in this subsection are delivered to him for filing:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Document</th>
<th>Fee</th>
</tr> </thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(1) Articles of incorporation:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(A) A Domestic corporation with only domestic</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>operations and activities</td>
<td>$1,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(B) All other corporations</td>
<td>$10,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(2) Application for use of indistinguishable name</td>
<td>$200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(3) Application for reserved name</td>
<td>$200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(4) Notice of transfer of reserved name</td>
<td>$200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Description</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---</td>
<td>-----------------------------------------------------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>(5) Application for registered name</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>(6) Application for renewal of registered name</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>(7) Registered corporation’s statement of change of registered agent or</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>registered office or both</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>(8) Agent’s statement of change of registered office for each affected</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>registered corporation not to exceed a total of</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>(9) Agent’s statement of resignation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>(10) Amendment of articles of incorporation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>(11) Restatement of articles of incorporation with amendment of articles</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(12) Articles of merger or share exchange</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9</td>
<td>(13) Articles of dissolution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10</td>
<td>(14) Articles of revocation of dissolution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>(15) Certificate of administrative dissolution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12</td>
<td>(16) Application for reinstatement following administrative dissolution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13</td>
<td>(17) Certificate of reinstatement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14</td>
<td>(18) Certificate of judicial dissolution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15</td>
<td>(19) Annual report:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(A) Domestic corporation with only domestic operations and activities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16</td>
<td>(B) All other corporations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17</td>
<td>(20) Articles of correction</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18</td>
<td>(21) Application for certificate of existence or authorization</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>19</td>
<td>(22) Any other document required or permitted to be filed by this chapter.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
(b) The registrar shall collect a fee of $200 each time process is served on the registrar under this chapter. The party to a proceeding causing service of process is entitled to recover this fee as costs if he prevails in the proceeding.

(c) The registrar shall collect the following fees for copying and certifying the copy of any filed document relating to a registered corporation:

- (1) $1.00 a page for copying; and
- (2) $20.00 for the certificate.

§ 1005. Effective time and date of document.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) and section 1006(c), a document accepted for filing is effective:

- (1) at the date and time of filing, as evidenced by such means as the registrar may use for the purpose of recording that date and time of filing; or
- (2) at the time specified in the document as its effective time on the date it is filed.

(b) A document may specify a delayed effective time and date, and if it does so the document becomes effective at the time and date specified. If a delayed effective date but no time is specified, the document is effective at the close of business on that date. A delayed effective date for a document may not be later than the 90th day after the date it is filed.

§ 1006. Correcting filed document.

(a) A registered corporation may correct a document filed by the registrar if the document:

- (1) contains an incorrect statement; or
- (2) was defectively executed, attested, sealed, verified, or acknowledged; or
- (3) the electronic transmission was defective.

(b) A document is corrected:

- (1) by preparing articles of correction that
(A) describe the document (including its filing date) or attach a copy of it to the articles,
(B) specify the inaccuracy or defect to be corrected, and
(C) correct the inaccuracy or defect; and
(2) by delivering the articles to the registrar for filing.

(c) Articles of correction are effective on the effective date of the document they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected document and adversely affected by the correction. As to those persons, articles of correction are effective when filed.

§ 1007. Filing duty of registrar.

(a) If a document delivered to the office of the registrar for filing satisfies the requirements of section 1002, the registrar shall file it.

(b) The registrar files a document by recording it as filed on the date and time of receipt. After filing a document, except as provided in sections 1063 the registrar shall deliver to the registered corporation or its representative a copy of the document with an acknowledgment of the date and time of filing.

(c) If the registrar refuses to file a document, the registrar shall return it to the registered corporation or its representative within five days after the document was delivered, together with a brief, written explanation of the reason for the refusal.

(d) The registrar’s duty to file documents under this Section is ministerial. The registrar’s filing or refusing to file a document does not:

(1) affect the validity or invalidity of the document in whole or part;

(2) relate to the correctness or incorrectness of information contained in the document;

(3) create a presumption that the document is valid or invalid or that information contained in the document is correct or incorrect.

§ 1008. Appeal from registrar’s refusal to file.
(a) If the registrar refuses to file a document delivered to its office for filing, the registered corporation may appeal the refusal to the Supreme Court within 30 days after the return of the document. The appeal is commenced by petitioning the Supreme Court to compel filing the document and by attaching to the petition the document and the registrar’s explanation of its refusal to file.

(b) The Supreme Court may summarily order the registrar to file the document or take other action the court considers appropriate.

(c) The Supreme Court’s final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

§ 1009. Evidentiary effect of copy of filed document. A certificate attached to a copy of a document filed by the registrar, bearing its signature, which may be in facsimile, and the seal of the Republic, is conclusive evidence that the original document is on file with the registrar.

§ 1010. Certificate of existence.

(a) Anyone may apply to the registrar to furnish a certificate of existence for a registered corporation.

(b) A certificate of existence sets forth:

(1) the registered corporation’s corporate name;

(2) that the registered corporation is duly incorporated under the law of the Republic, the date of its incorporation, and the period of its duration if less than perpetual;

(3) that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to the Republic have been paid, if:

(A) payment is reflected in the records of the registrar and (B) non-payment affects the existence of the registered corporation;

(4) that its most recent annual report required by section 1278 has been delivered to the registrar;

(5) that articles of dissolution have not been filed; and

(6) other facts of record in the office of the registrar that may be requested by the applicant.

(c) Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence issued by the registrar may be relied upon as conclusive evidence that the registered corporation is in existence.

§ 1011. Penalty for signing false document.

(a) A person commits an offense if he signs a document he knows is false in any material respect with intent that the document be delivered to the registrar for filing.

(b) An offense under this Section may be grounds for administrative dissolution under Sections 1250 through 1253.

§ 1012. Notice.

(a) Notice under this chapter must be in writing unless oral notice is reasonable under the circumstances. Notice by electronic transmission is written notice.

(b) Notice may be communicated in person; by mail or other method of delivery; or by telephone, voice mail or other electronic means. If these forms of personal notice are impracticable, notice may be communicated by a newspaper of general circulation in the area where published, or by radio, television, or other form of public broadcast communication.

(g) Written notice by a registered corporation to its shareholder, if in a comprehensible form, is effective:

(7) upon deposit in the Republic of Palau Postal Service mail, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed to the shareholder’s address shown in the registered corporation’s current record of shareholders; or

(2) when electronically transmitted to the shareholder in a manner authorized by the shareholder.

(d) Written notice to a registered corporation may be addressed to its registered agent at its registered office or to the corporation or its secretary at its principal office shown in its most recent annual report.
(e) Except as provided in subsection (c), written notice, if in a comprehensible form, is effective at the earliest of the following:

(1) when received;

(2) five days after its deposit in the Republic of Palau Postal Service Mail, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed; or

(3) on the date shown on the return receipt, if sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and the receipt is signed by or on behalf of the addressee.

(f) Oral notice is effective when communicated if communicated in a comprehensible manner.

(g) If this chapter prescribes notice requirements for particular circumstances, those requirements govern. If articles of incorporation or bylaws prescribe notice requirements, not inconsistent with this section or other provisions of this chapter, those requirements govern.

Subchapter 2

Registrar

§ 1021. Registrar; office created; duties.

(a) There shall be a registrar designated within the Ministry of Finance appointed by the President.

(b) The registrar shall issue, receive, and hold as custodian all certificates, papers, statements, or other records or documents required by the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations promulgated under this chapter. In addition, the registrar shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to the registrar by the President.

§ 1022. Same; Powers.

(a) The registrar has the power reasonably necessary to perform the duties required of the registrar by this chapter.
(b) The registrar, with the approval of the President, shall have the power to prescribe such rules and regulations as are deemed advisable to administer and carry into effect the provisions of this chapter. Such rules and regulations shall have the force and effect of law.

(c) The registrar may, when it deems it in the public interest, convene a special meeting of the shareholders, board or directors, or officers of any registered corporation organized or existing under the provisions of this chapter, by giving notice, not less than 10 days before the date of such meeting, to the shareholders, directors, or officers, as the case might be. Such notice shall state the purpose of the meeting and the subject or subjects to be discussed.

(d) In connection with the duties described in this chapter, the registrar is authorized and empowered to order the production of books of account, papers, and documents of any registered corporation. Refusal, without a showing of good cause, to produce books of accounts, papers, or documents within 60 days after an order by the registrar for the production thereof is a ground for administrative dissolution under section 1250.

Subchapter 3

Incorporation

§ 1031. Number of shareholders.

(a) For purposes of this chapter, the following identified as a shareholder in a registered corporation’s current record of shareholders constitutes one shareholder:

   (1) three or fewer co-owners;
   (2) a corporation, partnership, trust, estate, or other entity;
   (3) the trustees, guardians, custodians, or other fiduciaries of a single trust, estate, or account.

(b) For purposes of this chapter, shareholdings registered in substantially similar names constitute one shareholder if it is reasonable to believe that the names represent the same person.

§ 1032. Incorporators. One or more persons may act as the incorporator or incorporators of a registered corporation by delivering articles of incorporation to the registrar for filing.
§ 1033. Articles of incorporation.

(a) The articles of incorporation must set forth:

(1) a corporate name for the registered corporation that satisfies the requirements of section 1051;

(2) the number of shares the registered corporation is authorized to issue;

(3) the street address of the registered corporation’s initial registered office and the name of its initial registered agent at that office;

(4) the name and address of each incorporator;

(5) a statement that the registered corporation will have an initial capitalization of at least one hundred thousand dollars (U.S. $100,000);

(6) a statement regarding all tax that the registered corporation is subject to under the laws of the Republic of Palau; and

(7) a statement that no incorporator, director, principal officer, or ten-percent shareholder has been convicted or pleaded nolo contendere within the last five years, measured from the later of the date of parole or the date of conviction, before the filing of the articles of incorporation of a felony involving fraud or deceit, including but not limited to money laundering, tax evasion, securities fraud, mail or wire fraud, forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, or conspiracy to defraud.

(b) The articles of incorporation may set forth:

(1) the names and addresses of the individuals who are to serve as the initial directors;

(2) provisions not inconsistent with law regarding:

(A) the purpose or purposes for which the registered corporation is organized;

(B) managing the business and regulating the affairs of the registered corporation;
(C) defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the registered corporation, its board of directors, and shareholders;

(D) a par value for authorized shares or classes of shares;

(E) the imposition of personal liability on shareholders for the debts of the registered corporation to a specified extent and upon specified conditions;

(3) any provision that under this chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws;

(4) a provision eliminating or limiting the liability of a director to the registered corporation or its shareholders for money damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director, except liability for:

(A) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which he is not entitled;

(B) an intentional infliction of harm on the registered corporation or the shareholders; or

(C) a violation of section 1140; or (D) an intentional violation of criminal law;

and

(5) a provision permitting or making obligatory indemnification of a director for liability (as defined in section 1151(e)) to any person for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director, except liability for:

(C) receipt of a financial benefit to which he is not entitled;

(D) an intentional infliction of harm on the registered corporation or its shareholders;

(E) a violation of section 1140; or

(D) an intentional violation of criminal law.

(c) The articles of incorporation need not set forth any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

§ 1034. Incorporation.
(a) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, the corporate existence begins when the articles of incorporation are filed.

(b) The registrar’s filing of the articles of incorporation is conclusive proof that the incorporators satisfied all conditions precedent to incorporation except in a proceeding by the Republic to cancel or revoke the incorporation or involuntarily dissolve the registered corporation.

§ 1035. Liability for pre-incorporation transactions. All persons purporting to act as or on behalf of a registered corporation, knowing there was no incorporation under this chapter, are jointly and severally liable for all liabilities created while so acting.

§ 1036. Organization of registered corporation.

(a) After incorporation:

(1) if initial directors are named in the articles of incorporation, the initial directors shall hold an organizational meeting, at the call of a majority of the directors, to complete the organization of the registered corporation by appointing officers, adopting bylaws, and carrying on any other business brought before the meeting;

(2) if initial directors are not named in the articles, the incorporator or incorporators shall hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators:

(A) to elect directors and complete the organization of the registered corporation; or

(B) to elect a board of directors who shall complete the organization of the registered corporation.

(b) Action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken by incorporators at an organizational meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action taken is evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken and signed by each incorporator.

(c) An organizational meeting may be held in or out of the Republic.

§ 1037. Bylaws.
(a) The incorporators or board of directors of a registered corporation shall adopt initial bylaws for the registered corporation.

(b) The bylaws of a registered corporation may contain any provision for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the registered corporation that is not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

§ 1038. Emergency bylaws.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, the board of directors of a registered corporation may adopt bylaws to be effective only in an emergency defined in subsection (d). The emergency bylaws, which are subject to amendment or repeal by the shareholders, may make all provisions necessary for managing the registered corporation during the emergency, including:

(1) procedures for calling a meeting of the board of directors;

(2) quorum requirements for the meeting; and

(3) designation of additional or substitute directors.

(b) All provisions of the regular bylaws consistent with the emergency bylaws remain effective during the emergency. The emergency bylaws are not effective after the emergency ends.

(c) Corporate action taken in good faith in accordance with the emergency bylaws:

(1) binds the registered corporation; and

(2) may not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent.

(d) An emergency exists for purposes of this section 1038, if a quorum of the registered corporation’s directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

Subchapter 4

Purposes and Powers

§ 1041. Registered corporation purposes.
(a) Every registered corporation incorporated under this chapter shall set forth the purposes of engaging in any lawful business the articles of incorporation.

(b) A registered corporation engaging in a business that is subject to regulation under another statute of the Republic may incorporate under this chapter only if permitted by, and subject to all limitations of, the other statute.

(c) No registered corporation shall engage in banking activities or operations commonly associated with financial institutions unless and until it complies with the laws and regulations of any jurisdiction in which it performs or intends to perform such activities and operations.

(d) No registered corporation shall engage in any banking or financial institution activities in any jurisdiction which has been designated by either the United States, the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), or the United Nations Security Council as a jurisdiction which is non-compliant with international banking or anti-money laundering standards or which has been designated as a terrorist state.

§ 1042. Registered corporation general powers. Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, every registered corporation has perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name and has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its business and affairs, including without limitation power:

(a) to sue and be sued, complain and defend in its corporate name;

(b) to have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and to use it, or a facsimile of it, by impressing or affixing it or in any other manner reproducing it;

(c) to make and amend bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of the Republic, for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the registered corporation;

(d) to purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, and own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with, real or personal property, or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;
(e) to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property;

(f) to purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire; own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of; and deal in and with shares or other interests in, or obligations of, any other entity;

(g) to make contracts and guarantees, incur liabilities, borrow money, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations (which may be convertible into or include the option to purchase other securities of the registered corporation), and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of any of its property, franchises, or income;

(h) to lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment;

(i) to be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity;

(j) to conduct its business, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by this chapter within or without the Republic;

(k) to elect directors and appoint officers, employees, and agents of the registered corporation, define their duties, fix their compensation, and lend them money and credit;

(l) to pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, share bonus plans, share option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any or all of its current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;

(m) to make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes;

(n) to transact any lawful business that will aid governmental policy; and

(o) to make payments or donations, or do any other act, not inconsistent with law, that furthers the business and affairs of the registered corporation.

§ 1043. Emergency powers.
(a) In anticipation of or during an emergency defined in subsection (d), the board of directors of a registered corporation may:

(1) modify lines of succession to accommodate the incapacity of any director, officer, employee, or agent; and

(2) relocate the principal office, designate alternative principal offices or regional offices, or authorize the officers to do so.

(b) During an emergency defined in subsection (d), unless emergency bylaws provide otherwise:

(1) notice of a meeting of the board of directors need be given only to those directors whom it is practicable to reach and may be given in any practicable manner, including by publication and radio; and

(2) one or more officers of the registered corporation present at a meeting of the board of directors may be deemed to be directors for the meeting, in order of rank and within the same rank in order of seniority, as necessary to achieve a quorum.

(c) Corporate action taken in good faith during an emergency under this section to further the ordinary business affairs of the registered corporation:

(1) binds the registered corporation; and

(2) may not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent.

(d) An emergency exists for purposes of this section, if a quorum of the registered corporation’s directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

§ 1044. Ultra vires.
(a) A registered corporation’s power to act may be challenged:

(1) in a proceeding by a shareholder against the registered corporation to enjoin the act;
(2) in a proceeding by the registered corporation, directly, derivatively, or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, against an incumbent or former director, officer, employee, or agent of the registered corporation; or

(3) in a proceeding by the Office of the Attorney General under section 1254.

(b) In a shareholder’s proceeding under subsection (b)(1) to enjoin an unauthorized corporate act, the Supreme Court may enjoin or set aside the act, if equitable and if all affected persons are parties to the proceeding, and may award damages for loss (other than anticipated profits) suffered by the registered corporation or another party because of enjoining the unauthorized act.

Subchapter 5

Name

§ 1051. Corporate name.

(a) A corporate name:

(1) must contain the word “corporation,” “incorporated,” “company,” or “limited,” or the abbreviation “corp.,” “inc.,” “co.,” or “ltd.,” or words or abbreviations of like import in another language; and

(2) may not contain language stating or implying that the registered corporation is organized for a purpose other than that permitted by section 1041 and its articles of incorporation.

(b) Except as authorized by subsections (c) and (d), a corporate name must be distinguishable (i.e., not the same or substantially identical to) upon the records of the registrar and upon the records of the Registrar of Corporations of the Republic from:

(1) the corporate name of a registered corporation or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to do business in the Republic;

(2) a corporate name reserved or registered under section 1052;

(3) the fictitious name adopted by a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in the Republic because its real name is unavailable;
(4) the corporate name of a not-for-profit corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in the Republic; and

(5) the name of any other entity registered or authorized to transact business or conduct affairs under the laws of the Republic

(c) A registered corporation may apply to the registrar for authorization to use a name that is not distinguishable upon its records from one or more of the names described in subsection (b). The registrar shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(1) the other corporation or entity consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in form satisfactory to the registrar to change its name to a name that is distinguishable upon the records of the registrar or the records of the Registrar of Corporations of the Republic (as applicable) from the name of the applying registered corporation; or

(2) the applicant delivers to the registrar a certified copy of the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant’s right to use the name applied for in the Republic.

(d) A registered corporation may use the name (including the fictitious name) of another registered, domestic, or foreign corporation that is used in the Republic if the other registered, domestic, or foreign corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business in the Republic and the proposed user registered corporation:

(1) has merged with the other registered, domestic, or foreign corporation;

(2) has been formed by reorganization of the other registered, domestic, or foreign corporation; or

(3) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other registered, domestic, or foreign corporation.

(e) This chapter does not control the use of fictitious names.

§ 1052. Reserved name.
(a) A person may reserve the exclusive use of a corporate name, by delivering an application to the registrar for filing. The application must set forth the name and address of the applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. If the registrar finds that the corporate name applied for is available, the registrar shall reserve the name for the applicant’s exclusive use for a nonrenewable 120-day period.

(b) The owner of a reserved corporate name may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the registrar a signed notice of the transfer that states the name and address of the transferee.

Subchapter 6

Office and Agent

§ 1061. Registered office and registered agent. Each registered corporation must continuously maintain in the Republic:

(a) a registered office that may be the same as any of its places of business; and

(b) a registered agent, who may be:

(1) an individual who resides in the Republic and whose business office is identical with the registered office;

(2) a domestic corporation or not-for-profit domestic corporation whose business office is identical with the registered office; or

(3) a foreign corporation or not-for-profit foreign corporation authorized to transact business in the Republic whose business office is identical with the registered office.

§ 1062. Change of registered office or registered agent.

(a) A registered corporation may change its registered office or registered agent by delivering to the registrar for filing a statement of change that sets forth:

(1) the name of the registered corporation,

(2) the street address of its current registered office;
(3) if the current registered office is to be changed, the street address of the new registered office;

(4) the name of its current registered agent;

(5) if the current registered agent is to be changed, the name of the new registered agent and the new agent’s written consent (either on the statement or attached to it) to the appointment; and

(6) that after the change or changes are made, the street addresses of its registered office and the business office of its registered agent will be identical.

(b) If a registered agent changes the street address of his business office, he may change the street address of the registered office of any registered corporation for which he is the registered agent by notifying the registered corporation in writing of the change and signing (either manually or in facsimile) and delivering to the registrar for filing a statement that complies with the requirements of subsection (a) and recites that the registered corporation has been notified of the change.

§ 1063. Resignation of registered agent.

(a) A registered agent may resign his agency appointment by signing and delivering to the registrar for filing the signed original and two exact or conformed copies of a statement of resignation. The statement may include a statement that the registered office is also discontinued.

(b) After filing the statement the registrar shall mail one copy to the registered office
(if not discontinued) and the other copy to the registered corporation at its principal office.

(c) The agency appointment is terminated, and the registered office discontinued if so provided, on the 31st day after the date on which the statement was filed.

§ 1064. Service on registered corporation.

(a) A registered corporation’s registered agent is the registered corporation’s agent for service of process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the registered corporation.
(b) If a registered corporation has no registered agent, or the agent cannot with reasonable diligence be served, the registered corporation may be served by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the secretary of the registered corporation at its principal office. Service is perfected under this subsection at the earliest of:

(1) the date the registered corporation receives the mail;
(2) the date shown on the return receipt, if signed on behalf of the registered corporation; or
(3) five days after its deposit in the Republic of Palau Postal Service Mail, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

(c) This section does not prescribe the only means, or necessarily the required means, of serving a registered corporation.

Subchapter 7

Shares

§ 1071. Authorized shares.

(a) The articles of incorporation must prescribe the classes of shares and the number of shares of each class that the registered corporation is authorized to issue. If more than one class of shares is authorized, the articles of incorporation must prescribe a distinguishing designation for each class, and before the issuance of shares of a class the preferences, limitations, and relative rights of that class must be described in the articles of incorporation. All shares of a class must have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical with those of other shares of the same class except to the extent otherwise permitted by section 1072.

(b) The articles of incorporation must authorize (1) one or more classes of shares that together have unlimited voting rights, and (2) one or more classes of shares (which may be the same class or classes as those with voting rights) that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the registered corporation upon dissolution.

(c) The articles of incorporation may authorize one or more classes of shares that:
(1) have special, conditional, or limited voting rights, or no right to vote, except to the extent prohibited by this chapter;

(6) are redeemable or convertible as specified in the articles of incorporation

(A) at the option of the registered corporation, the shareholder, or another person or upon the occurrence of a designated event;

(B) for cash, indebtedness, securities, or other property;

(C) in a designated amount or in an amount determined in accordance with a designated formula or by reference to extrinsic data or events;

(3) entitle the holders to distributions calculated in any manner, including dividends that may be cumulative, noncumulative, or partially cumulative;

(4) have preference over any other class of shares with respect to distributions, including dividends and distributions upon the dissolution of the registered corporation.

(d) The description of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of share classes in subsection (c) is not exhaustive.

§ 1072. Terms of class or series determined by board of directors.

(a) If the articles of incorporation so provide, the board of directors may determine, in whole or part, the preferences, limitations, and relative rights (within the limits set forth in section 1071) of (1) any class of shares before the issuance of any shares of that class or (2) one or more series within a class before the issuance of any shares of that series.

(b) Each series of a class must be given a distinguishing designation.

(c) All shares of a series must have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical with those of other shares of the same series and, except to the extent otherwise provided in the description of the series, with those of other series of the same class.

(d) Before issuing any shares of a class or series created under this section 1072, the registered corporation must deliver to the registrar for filing articles of amendment, which are effective without shareholder action, that set forth:

(1) the name of the registered corporation;
(2) the text of the amendment determining the terms of the class or series of shares;

(3) the date it was adopted; and

(4) a statement that the amendment was duly adopted by the board of directors.

§ 1073. Issued and outstanding shares.

(a) A registered corporation may issue the number of shares of each class or series authorized by the articles of incorporation. Shares that are issued are outstanding shares until they are reacquired, redeemed, converted, or cancelled.

(b) The reacquisition, redemption, or conversion of outstanding shares is subject to the limitations of subsection (c) of this section and to section 1086.

(c) At all times that shares of the registered corporation are outstanding, one or more shares that together have unlimited voting rights and one or more shares that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the registered corporation upon dissolution must be outstanding.

§ 1074. Fractional shares.

(a) A registered corporation may:

(1) issue fractions of a share or pay in money the value of fractions of a share;

(2) arrange for disposition of fractional shares by the shareholders;

(3) issue scrip in registered or bearer form entitling the holder to receive a full share upon surrendering enough scrip to equal a full share.

(b) Each certificate representing scrip must be conspicuously labeled “scrip” and must contain the information required by section 1080(b).

(c) The holder of a fractional share is entitled to exercise the rights of a shareholder, including the right to vote, to receive dividends, and to participate in the assets of the registered corporation upon liquidation. The holder of scrip is not entitled to any of these rights unless the scrip provides for them.
(d) The board of directors may authorize the issuance of scrip subject to any condition considered desirable, including:

1. that the scrip will become void if not exchanged for full shares before a specified date; and

2. that the shares for which the scrip is exchangeable may be sold and the proceeds paid to the scrip holders.

§ 1075. Subscription for shares before incorporation.

(a) A subscription for shares entered into before incorporation is irrevocable for six months unless the subscription agreement provides a longer or shorter period or all the subscribers agree to revocation.

(b) The board of directors may determine the payment terms of subscriptions for shares that were entered into before incorporation, unless the subscription agreement specifies them. A call for payment by the board of directors must be uniform so far as practicable as to all shares of the same class or series, unless the subscription agreement specifies otherwise.

(c) Shares issued pursuant to subscriptions entered into before incorporation are fully paid and nonassessable when the registered corporation receives the consideration specified in the subscription agreement.

(d) If a subscriber defaults in payment of money or property under a subscription agreement entered into before incorporation, the registered corporation may collect the amount owed as any other debt. Alternatively, unless the subscription agreement provides otherwise, the registered corporation may rescind the agreement and may sell the shares if the debt remains unpaid more than 20 days after the registered corporation sends written demand for payment to the subscriber.

(e) A subscription agreement entered into after incorporation is a contract between the subscriber and the registered corporation subject to section 1076.

§ 1076. Issuance of shares.
(a) The powers granted in this section 1076 to the board of directors may be reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation.

(b) The board of directors may authorize shares to be issued for consideration consisting of any tangible or intangible property or benefit to the registered corporation, including cash, promissory notes, services performed, contracts for services to be performed, or other securities of the registered corporation.

(c) Before the registered corporation issues shares, the board of directors must determine that the consideration received or to be received for shares to be issued is adequate. That determination by the board of directors is conclusive insofar as the adequacy of consideration for the issuance of shares relates to whether the shares are validly issued, fully paid, and non-assessable.

(d) When the registered corporation receives the consideration for which the board of directors authorized the issuance of shares, the shares issued therefore are fully paid and non-assessable.

(e) The registered corporation may place in escrow shares issued for a contract for future services or benefits or a promissory note, or make other arrangements to restrict the transfer of the shares, and may credit distributions in respect of the shares against their purchase price, until the services are performed, the note is paid, or the benefits received. If the services are not performed, the note is not paid, or the benefits are not received, the shares escrowed or restricted and the distributions credited may be cancelled in whole or part.

(f) An issuance of shares or other securities convertible into or rights exercisable for shares, in a transaction or a series of integrated transactions, requires approval of the shareholders, at a meeting at which a quorum exists consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter, if:

(1) the shares, other securities, or rights are issued for consideration other than cash or cash equivalents, and
(2) the voting power of shares that are issued and issuable as a result of the transaction or series of integrated transactions will comprise more than 20 percent of the voting power of the shares of the registered corporation that were outstanding immediately before the transaction.

(g) In this subsection:

(1) For purposes of determining the voting power of shares issued and issuable as a result of a transaction or series of integrated transactions, the voting power of shares shall be the greater of (i) the voting power of the shares to be issued, or (ii) the voting power of the shares that would be outstanding after giving effect to the conversion of convertible shares and other securities and the exercise of rights to be issued.

(2) A series of transactions is integrated if consummation of one transaction is made contingent on consummation of one or more of the other transactions.

§ 1077. Liability of shareholders.

(a) A purchaser from a registered corporation of its own shares is not liable to the registered corporation or its creditors with respect to the shares except to pay the consideration for which the shares were authorized to be issued or specified in the subscription agreement.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a shareholder of a registered corporation is not personally liable for the acts or debts of the registered corporation except that he may become personally liable by reason of his own acts or conduct.

§ 1078. Share dividends.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shares may be issued pro rata and without consideration to the registered corporation’s shareholders or to the shareholders of one or more classes or series. An issuance of shares under this subsection is a share dividend.

(b) Shares of one class or series may not be issued as a share dividend in respect of shares of another class or series unless (1) the articles of incorporation so authorize, (2) a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the class or series to be issued approve the issue, or
(3) there are no outstanding shares of the class or series to be issued.
Senate Bill No.___________

(c) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a share dividend, it is the date the board of directors authorizes the share dividend.

§ 1079. Share options. A registered corporation may issue rights, options, or warrants for the purchase of shares of the registered corporation. The board of directors shall determine the terms upon which the rights, options, or warrants are issued, their form and content, and the consideration for which the shares are to be issued.

§ 1080. Form and content of certificates.

(a) Shares may but need not be represented by certificates. Unless this chapter or another statute expressly provides otherwise, the rights and obligations of shareholders are identical whether or not their shares are represented by certificates.

(b) At a minimum each share certificate must state on its face:

(1) the name of the issuing registered corporation and that it is organized under the law of the Republic;

(2) the name of the person to whom issued; and

(3) the number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, the certificate represents.

(c) If the issuing registered corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares or different series within a class, the designations, relative rights, preferences, and limitations applicable to each class and the variations in rights, preferences, and limitations determined for each series (and the authority of the board of directors to determine variations for future series) must be summarized on the front or back of each certificate. Alternatively, each certificate may state conspicuously on its front or back that the registered corporation will furnish the shareholder this information on request in writing and without charge.

(g) Each share certificate

(7)I must be signed (either manually or in facsimile) by two officers designated in the bylaws or by the board of directors and

(2) may bear the corporate seal or its facsimile.
(e) If the person who signed (either manually or in facsimile) a share certificate no longer holds office when the certificate is issued, the certificate is nevertheless valid.

§ 1081. Shares without certificates.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors of a registered corporation may authorize the issue of some or all of the shares of any or all of its classes or series without certificates. The authorization does not affect shares already represented by certificates until they are surrendered to the registered corporation.

(b) Within a reasonable time after the issue or transfer of shares without certificates, the registered corporation shall send the shareholder a written statement of the information required on certificates by this Chapter.

§ 1082. Restriction on transfer of shares and other securities.

(a) The articles of incorporation, bylaws, an agreement among shareholders, or an agreement between shareholders and the registered corporation may impose restrictions on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares of the registered corporation. A restriction does not affect shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

(b) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is valid and enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is authorized by this section 1082 and its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by section 1081(b). Unless so noted, a restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction.

(c) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is authorized:
   (1) to maintain the registered corporation’s status when it is dependent on the number or identity of its shareholders;
   (2) to preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law;
   (3) for any other reasonable purpose.

(d) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares may:
(1) obligate the shareholder first to offer the registered corporation or other persons (separately, consecutively, or simultaneously) an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares;

(2) obligate the registered corporation or other persons (separately, consecutively, or simultaneously) to acquire the restricted shares;

(3) require the registered corporation, the holders of any class of its shares, or another person to approve the transfer of the restricted shares, if the requirement is not manifestly unreasonable;

(4) prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of persons, if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.

(e) For purposes of this section “shares” includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

§ 1083. Expense of issue. A registered corporation may pay the expenses of selling or underwriting its shares, and of organizing or reorganizing the registered corporation, from the consideration received for shares.

§ 1084. Shareholders’ preemptive rights.

(a) The shareholders of a registered corporation do not have a preemptive right to acquire the registered corporation’s unissued shares except to the extent the articles of incorporation so provide.

(b) A statement included in the articles of incorporation that “the registered corporation elects to have preemptive rights” (or words of similar import) means that the following principles apply except to the extent the articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise:

(1) The shareholders of the registered corporation have a preemptive right, granted on uniform terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors, to provide a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right, to acquire proportional amounts of the registered corporation’s unissued shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue them.

(2) A shareholder may waive his preemptive right. A waiver evidenced by a writing is irrevocable even though it is not supported by consideration.

(3) There is no preemptive right with respect to:

(A) shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the registered corporation, its subsidiaries or affiliates;

(B) shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the registered corporation, its subsidiaries or affiliates;

(C) shares authorized in articles of incorporation that are issued within six months from the effective date of incorporation;

(D) shares sold otherwise than for money.

(4) Holders of shares of any class without general voting rights but with preferential rights to distributions or assets have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class.

(5) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class with preferential rights to distributions or assets unless the shares with preferential rights are convertible into or carry a right to subscribe for or acquire shares without preferential rights.

(6) Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders may be issued to any person for a period of one year after being offered to shareholders at a consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the consideration set for the exercise of preemptive rights. An offer at a lower consideration or after the expiration of one year is subject to the shareholders’ preemptive rights.
(c) For purposes of this section 1084, “shares” includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

§ 1085. Registered corporation’s acquisition of its own shares.

(a) A registered corporation may acquire its own shares, and shares so acquired constitute authorized but unissued shares.

(b) If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of acquired shares, the number of authorized shares is reduced by the number of shares acquired.

§ 1086. Distributions to shareholders.

(a) A board of directors may authorize and the registered corporation may make distributions to its shareholders subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation and the limitation in subsection (c).

(b) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution (other than one involving a purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the registered corporation’s shares), it is the date the board of directors authorizes the distribution.

(c) No distribution may be made if, after giving it effect:

(1) the registered corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

(2) the registered corporation’s total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus (unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise) the amount that would be needed, if the registered corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

(d) The board of directors may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (c) either on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.
(e) Except as provided in subsection (g), the effect of a distribution under subsection (c) is measured:

(1) in the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the registered corporation’s shares, as of the earlier of (A) the date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the registered corporation or (B) the date the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder with respect to the acquired shares;

(2) in the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed; and

(3) in all other cases, as of (A) the date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within 120 days after the date of authorization or (B) the date the payment is made if it occurs more than 120 days after the date of authorization.

(f) A registered corporation’s indebtedness to a shareholder incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section 1086 is at parity with the registered corporation’s indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(g) Indebtedness of a registered corporation, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not considered a liability for purposes of determinations under subsection (c) if its terms provide that payment of principal and interest are made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution to shareholders could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is actually made.

(h) This section 1086 shall not apply to distributions in liquidation under subchapter 18.

Subchapter 8

Shareholders

§ 1091. Annual meeting.
(a) A registered corporation shall hold a meeting of shareholders annually at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws.

(b) Annual shareholders’ meetings may be held in or out of the Republic at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings shall be held at the registered corporation’s principal office.

(c) The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a registered corporation’s bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

§ 1092. Special meeting.

(a) A registered corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders:

(1) on call of its board of directors or the person or persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or

(2) if the holders of at least 10 percent of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date, and deliver to the registered corporation’s secretary one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held, provided that the articles of incorporation may fix a lower percentage or a higher percentage not exceeding 25 percent of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a written demand for a special meeting may be revoked by a writing to that effect received by the registered corporation before the receipt by the registered corporation of demands sufficient in number to require the holding of a special meeting.

(b) If not otherwise fixed under section 1093 or 1097, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the demand.

(c) Special shareholders’ meetings may be held in or out of the Republic at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, special meetings shall be held at the registered corporation’s principal office.
(d) Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required by section 1095(c) may be conducted at a special shareholders’ meeting.

§ 1093. Court-ordered meeting.

(a) The Supreme Court may summarily order a meeting to be held:

(1) on application of any shareholder of the registered corporation entitled to participate in an annual meeting if an annual meeting was not held within the earlier of 6 months after the end of the registered corporation’s fiscal year or 15 months after its last annual meeting; or

(2) on application of a shareholder who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under section 1092 if:

(A) notice of the special meeting was not given within 30 days after the date the demand was delivered to the registered corporation’s secretary; or

(B) the special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

(b) The Supreme Court may fix the time and place of the meeting, determine the shares entitled to participate in the meeting, specify a record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting (or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters), and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

§ 1094. Action without meeting.

(a) Action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken at a shareholders’ meeting may be taken without a meeting if, before or after the action, a written consent is signed by stockholders holding at least a majority of the voting power entitled to vote on the action, except that if a different proportion of voting power entitled to vote on the action is required for such an action at a meeting, then that proportion of written consents is required. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents bearing the date of signature describing the action taken, signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action, and delivered to the registered corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. In no instance where action is authorized by written consent need a meeting of stockholders be called or notice given.

(b) If not otherwise fixed under section 1093 or 1097, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the consent under subsection (a). No written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within 60 days of the earliest date appearing on a consent delivered to the registered corporation in the manner required by this section, written consents signed by stockholders holding at least a majority of the voting power entitled to vote on the action are received by the registered corporation. A written consent may be revoked by a writing to that effect received by the registered corporation before the receipt by the registered corporation of unrevoked written consents sufficient in number to take corporate action.

(c) A consent signed under this section 1094 has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

(d) If this chapter requires that notice of proposed action be given to nonvoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by unanimous consent of the voting shareholders, the registered corporation must give its nonvoting shareholders written notice of the proposed action at least 10 days before the action is taken. The notice must contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under this chapter, would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

§ 1095. Notice of meeting.

(a) A registered corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time, and place of each annual and special shareholders’ meeting no fewer than 10 nor more than 60 days before the meeting date. Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the registered corporation is required to give notice only to shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting.
(b) Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, notice of an annual meeting need not include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(c) Notice of a special meeting must include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(d) If not otherwise fixed under section 1093 or 1097, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special shareholders’ meeting is the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

(e) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual or special shareholders’ meeting is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time, or place if the new date, time, or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under section 1097, however, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given under this section 1095 to persons who are shareholders as of the new record date.

§ 1096. Waiver of notice.

(a) A shareholder may waive any notice required by this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver must be in writing, be signed by the shareholder entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the registered corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(b) A shareholder’s attendance at a meeting:

(1) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the shareholder at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting;

(2) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice, unless the shareholder objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

§ 1097. Record date.
The bylaws may fix or provide the manner of fixing the record date for one or more voting groups in order to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of a shareholders’ meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote, or to take any other action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board of directors of the registered corporation may fix a future date as the record date.

A record date fixed under this section 1097 may not be more than 70 days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of shareholders.

determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a shareholders’ meeting is effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting.

If the Supreme Court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date continues in effect or it may fix a new record date.

§ 1098. Conduct of the meeting.

(a) At each meeting of shareholders, a chair shall preside. The chair shall be appointed as provided in the bylaws or, in the absence of such provision, by the board.

(b) The chair, unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, shall have the authority to determine the order of business and shall establish rules for the conduct of the meeting.

(c) Any rules adopted for, and the conduct of, the meeting shall be fair to shareholders.

(d) The chair of the meeting shall announce at the meeting when the polls close for each matter voted upon. If no announcement is made, the polls shall be deemed to have closed upon the final adjournment of the meeting. After the polls close, no ballots, proxies or votes nor any revocations or changes thereto may be accepted.

§ 1099. Shareholders’ list for meeting.
(a) After fixing a record date for a meeting, a registered corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to notice of a shareholders’ meeting. The list must be arranged by voting group (and within each voting group by class or series of shares) and show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder.

(b) The shareholders’ list must be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning two business days after notice of the meeting is given for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting, at the registered corporation’s principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. A shareholder, his agent, or attorney is entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of section 1272(c), to copy the list, during regular business hours and at his expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

(c) The registered corporation shall make the shareholders’ list available at the meeting, and any shareholder, his agent, or attorney is entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

(d) If the registered corporation refuses to allow a shareholder, his agent, or attorney to inspect the shareholders’ list before or at the meeting (or copy the list as permitted by subsection (b)), the Supreme Court, on application of the shareholder, may summarily order the inspection or copying at the registered corporation’s expense and may postpone the meeting for which the list was prepared until the inspection or copying is complete.

(e) Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders’ list does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

§ 1100. Voting entitlement of shares.

(a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c) or unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of class, is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on at a shareholders’ meeting. Only shares are entitled to vote.

(b) Absent special circumstances, the shares of a registered corporation are not entitled to vote if they are owned, directly or indirectly, by a second registered corporation, registered, and the first registered corporation owns, directly or indirectly, a majority of the shares entitled to vote for directors of the second registered corporation.

(c) Subsection (b) does not limit the power of a registered corporation to vote any shares, including its own shares, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

(d) Redeemable shares are not entitled to vote after notice of redemption is mailed to the holders and a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited with a bank, trust company, or other financial institution under an irrevocable obligation to pay the holders the redemption price on surrender of the shares.

§ 1101. Proxies.

(a) A shareholder may vote his shares in person or by proxy.

(b) A shareholder or his agent or attorney-in-fact may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the shareholder by signing an appointment form or by an electronic transmission. An electronic transmission must contain or be accompanied by information from which one can determine that the shareholder, the shareholder’s agent, or the shareholder’s attorney-in-fact authorized the electronic transmission.

(c) An appointment of a proxy is effective a signed appointment form or an electronic transmission of the appointment is received by the inspector of election or the officer or agent of the registered corporation authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for 11 months unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment.

(d) An appointment of a proxy is revocable unless the appointment form or electronic transmission conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. Appointments coupled with an interest include the appointment of:

(1) a pledgee;

(2) a person who purchased or agreed to purchase the shares;

(3) a creditor of the registered corporation who extended it credit under terms requiring the appointment;
(4) an employee of the registered corporation whose employment contract requires the appointment; or

(5) party to a voting agreement created under section 1109.

(c) The death or incapacity of the shareholder appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the registered corporation to accept the proxy’s authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises his authority under the appointment.

(f) An appointment made irrevocable under subsection (d) is revoked when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished.

(g) transferee for value of shares subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if he did not know of its existence when he acquired the shares and the existence of the irrevocable appointment was not noted conspicuously on the certificate representing the shares or on the information statement for shares without certificates.

(h) Subject to section 1103 and to any express limitation on the proxy’s authority stated in the appointment form or electronic transmission, a registered corporation is entitled to accept the proxy’s vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the appointment.

§ 1102. Shares held by nominees.

(a) A registered corporation may establish a procedure by which the beneficial owner of shares that are registered in the name of a nominee is recognized by the registered corporation as the shareholder. The extent of this recognition may be determined in the procedure.

(b) The procedure may set forth:

(1) the types of nominees to which it applies;

(2) the rights or privileges that the registered corporation recognizes in a beneficial owner;

(3) the manner in which the procedure is selected by the nominee;

(4) the information that must be provided when the procedure is selected;

(5) the period for which selection of the procedure is effective; and § 1103. Registered corporation’s acceptance of votes.

(a) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the registered corporation if acting in good faith is entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder.

(b) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the name of its shareholder, the registered corporation if acting in good faith is nevertheless entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if:

1. The shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity;
2. The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator representing the shareholder and, if the registered corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the registered corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
3. The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the shareholder and, if the registered corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the registered corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
4. The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the shareholder and, if the registered corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the registered corporation of the signatory’s authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
(5) two or more persons are the shareholder as co-tenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the co-owners and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the co-owners.

(c) The registered corporation is entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory’s authority to sign for the shareholder.

(d) The registered corporation and its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section or section 1101(b) are not liable in damages to the shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

(e) Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section 1103 or section 1101(b) is valid, unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

§ 1104. Quorum and voting requirements for voting groups.

(a) Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. Unless the articles of incorporation or this chapter provide otherwise, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group constitutes a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter.

(b) Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting.

(c) If a quorum exists, action on a matter other than the election of directors, by a voting group is approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the articles of incorporation or this chapter require a greater number of affirmative votes.

(d) An amendment of articles of incorporation adding, changing, or deleting a quorum or voting requirement for a voting group greater than specified in subsection (a) or (c) is governed by section 1106.

(e) The election of directors is governed by section 1107.

§ 1105. Action by single and multiple voting groups.

(a) If the articles of incorporation or this chapter provide for voting by a single voting group on a matter, action on that matter is taken when voted upon by that voting group as provided in section 1104.

(b) If the articles of incorporation or this chapter provide for voting by two or more voting groups on a matter, action on that matter is taken only when voted upon by each of those voting groups counted separately as provided in section 1104. Action may be taken by one voting group on a matter even though no action is taken by another voting group entitled to vote on the matter.

§ 1106. Greater quorum or voting requirements.

(a) The articles of incorporation may provide for a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders (or voting groups of shareholders) than is provided for by this chapter.

(b) An amendment to the articles of incorporation that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

§ 1107. Voting for directors; cumulative voting.

(a) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

(b) Shareholders do not have a right to cumulate their votes for directors unless the articles of incorporation so provide.
(c) A statement included in the articles of incorporation that “all (or a designated group of) shareholders are entitled to cumulate their votes for directors” (or words of similar import) means that the shareholders designated are entitled to multiply the number of votes they are entitled to cast by the number of directors for whom they are entitled to vote and cast the product for a single candidate or distribute the product among two or more candidates.

(d) Shares otherwise entitled to vote cumulatively may not be voted cumulatively at a particular meeting unless:

1. the meeting notice or proxy statement accompanying the notice states conspicuously that cumulative voting is authorized; or
2. a shareholder who has the right to cumulate his votes gives notice to the registered corporation not less than 48 hours before the time set for the meeting of his intent to cumulate his votes during the meeting, and if one shareholder gives this notice all other shareholders in the same voting group participating in the election are entitled to cumulate their votes without giving further notice.

§ 1108. Voting trusts.

(a) One or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the provisions of the trust (which may include anything consistent with its purpose) and transferring their shares to the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall prepare a list of the names and addresses of all owners of beneficial interests in the trust, together with the number and class of shares each transferred to the trust, and deliver copies of the list and agreement to the registered corporation’s principal office.

(b) A voting trust becomes effective on the date the first shares subject to the trust are registered in the trustee’s name. A voting trust is valid for not more than 10 years after its effective date unless extended under subsection (c).

(c) All or some of the parties to a voting trust may extend it for additional terms of not more than 10 years each by signing an extension agreement and obtaining the voting trustee’s written consent to the extension. An extension is valid for 10 years from the date the first shareholder signs the extension agreement. The voting trustee must deliver copies of the extension agreement and list of beneficial owners to the registered corporation’s principal office.

An extension agreement binds only those parties signing it.

§ 1109. Voting agreements.

(a) Two or more shareholders may provide for the manner in which they will vote their shares by signing an agreement for that purpose. A voting agreement created under this section 1109 is not subject to the provisions of section 1108.

(b) A voting agreement created under this section 1109 is specifically enforceable.

§ 1110. Shareholder agreements.

(a) An agreement among the shareholders of a registered corporation that complies with this section 1110 is effective among the shareholders and the registered corporation even though it is inconsistent with one or more other provisions of this chapter in that it:

1. eliminates the board of directors or restricts the discretion or powers of the board of directors;
2. governs the authorization or making of distributions whether or not in proportion to ownership of shares, subject to the limitations in section 1086;
3. establishes who shall be directors or officers of the registered corporation, or their terms of office or manner of selection or removal;
4. governs, in general or in regard to specific matters, the exercise or division of voting power by or between the shareholders and directors or by or among any of them, including use of weighted voting rights or director proxies;
5. establishes the terms and conditions of any agreement for the transfer or use of property or the provision of services between the registered corporation and any shareholder, director, officer or employee of the registered corporation or among any of them;
(6) transfers to one or more shareholders or other persons all or part of the authority to exercise the corporate powers or to manage the business and affairs of the registered corporation, including the resolution of any issue about which there exists a deadlock among directors or shareholders;

(7) requires dissolution of the registered corporation at the request of one or more of the shareholders or upon the occurrence of a specified event or contingency; or

(8) otherwise governs the exercise of the corporate powers or the management of the business and affairs of the registered corporation or the relationship among the shareholders, the directors and the registered corporation, or among any of them, and is not contrary to public policy.

(b) An agreement authorized by this section 1110 shall be:

(1) set forth:

(A) in the articles of incorporation or bylaws and approved by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the agreement; or

(B) in a written agreement that is signed by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the agreement and is made known to the registered corporation;

(2) subject to amendment only by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the amendment, unless the agreement provides otherwise; and

(3) valid for 10 years, unless the agreement provides otherwise.

(c) the existence of an agreement authorized by this section 1110 shall be noted conspicuously on the front or back of each certificate for outstanding shares or on the information statement required by section 1081(b). If at the time of the agreement the registered corporation has shares outstanding represented by certificates, the registered corporation shall recall the outstanding certificates and issue substitute certificates that comply with this subsection. The failure to note the existence of the agreement on the certificate or information statement shall not affect the validity of the agreement or any action taken pursuant to it. Any purchaser of shares who, at the time of purchase, did not have knowledge of the existence of the agreement shall be entitled to rescission of the purchase. A purchaser shall be deemed to have knowledge of the existence of the agreement if its existence is noted on the certificate or information statement for the shares in compliance with this subsection and, if the shares are not represented by a certificate, the information statement is delivered to the purchaser at or before the time of purchase of the shares. An action to enforce the right of rescission authorized by this subsection must be commenced within the earlier of 90 days after discovery of the existence of the agreement or two years after the time of purchase of the shares.

(d) An agreement authorized by this section 1110 shall cease to be effective when shares of the registered corporation are listed on a national securities exchange or regularly traded in a market maintained by one or more members of a national or affiliated securities association. If the agreement ceases to be effective for any reason, the board of directors may, if the agreement is contained or referred to in the registered corporation’s articles of incorporation or bylaws, adopt an amendment to the articles of incorporation or bylaws, without shareholder action, to delete the agreement and any references to it.

(e) An agreement authorized by this section 1110 that limits the discretion or powers of the board of directors shall relieve the directors of, and impose upon the person or persons in whom such discretion or powers are vested, liability for acts or omissions imposed by law on directors to the extent that the discretion or powers of the directors are limited by the agreement.

(f) The existence or performance of an agreement authorized by this section 1110 shall not be a ground for imposing personal liability on any shareholder for the acts or debts of the registered corporation even if the agreement or its performance treats the registered corporation as if it were a partnership or results in failure to observe the corporate formalities otherwise applicable to the matters governed by the agreement.

(g) Incorporators or subscribers for shares may act as shareholders with respect to an agreement authorized by this section 1110, if no shares have been issued when the agreement is made.
Subchapter 9

Derivative Proceedings.

§ 1111. Subchapter definitions. In this subchapter:

(a) “Derivative proceeding” means a civil suit in the right of a registered corporation.

(b) “Shareholder” includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or held by a nominee on the beneficial owner’s behalf.

§ 1112. Standing. A shareholder may not commence or maintain a derivative proceeding unless the shareholder:

(a) was a shareholder of the registered corporation at the time of the act or omission complained of or became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at that time; and

(b) fairly and adequately represents the interests of the registered corporation in enforcing the right of the registered corporation.

§ 1113. Demand. No shareholder may commence a derivative proceeding until:

(a) a written demand has been made upon the registered corporation to take suitable action; and

(b) 90 days have expired from the date the demand was made unless the shareholder has earlier been notified that the demand has been rejected by the registered corporation or unless irreparable injury to the registered corporation would result by waiting for the expiration of the 90-day period.

§ 1114. Stay of proceedings. If the registered corporation commences an inquiry into the allegations made in the demand or complaint, the court may stay any derivative proceeding for such period as the court deems appropriate.

§ 1115. Dismissal.

(a) A derivative proceeding shall be dismissed by the court on motion by the registered corporation if one of the groups specified in subsections (b) or (f) has determined in good faith after conducting a reasonable inquiry upon which its conclusions are based that the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is not in the best interests of the registered corporation.

(b) Unless a panel is appointed pursuant to subsection (f), the determination in subsection (a) shall be made by:

(1) a majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors if the independent directors constitute a quorum; or

(2) a majority vote of a committee consisting of two or more independent directors appointed by majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors, whether or not such independent directors constituted a quorum.

(c) None of the following shall by itself cause a director to be considered not independent for purposes of this section 1115:

(1) the nomination or election of the director by persons who are defendants in the derivative proceeding or against whom action is demanded;

(2) the naming of the director as a defendant in the derivative proceeding or as a person against whom action is demanded; or

(3) the approval by the director of the act being challenged in the derivative proceeding or demand if the act resulted in no personal benefit to the director.

(d) If a derivative proceeding is commenced after a determination has been made rejecting a demand by a shareholder, the complaint shall allege with particularity facts establishing either (1) that a majority of the board of directors did not consist of independent directors at the time the determination was made or (2) that the requirements of subsection (a) have not been met.

(e) If a majority of the board of directors does not consist of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the registered corporation shall have the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (a) have been met. If a majority of the board of directors consists of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the plaintiff shall have the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (a) have not been met.
(f) The court may appoint a panel of one or more independent persons upon motion by the registered corporation to make a determination whether the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is in the best interests of the registered corporation. In such case, the plaintiff shall have the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (a) have not been met.

§ 1116. Discontinuance of settlement. A derivative proceeding may not be discontinued or settled without the court’s approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially affect the interests of the registered corporation’s shareholders or a class of shareholders, the court shall direct that notice be given to the shareholders affected.

§ 1117. Payment of Expenses. On termination of the derivative proceeding the court may:

(a) order the registered corporation to pay the plaintiff’s reasonable expenses (including counsel fees) incurred in the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding has resulted in a substantial benefit to the registered corporation;

(b) order the plaintiff to pay any defendant’s reasonable expenses (including counsel fees) incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced or maintained without reasonable cause or for an improper purpose; or

(c) order a party to pay an opposing party’s reasonable expenses (including counsel fees) incurred because of the filing of a pleading, motion or other paper, if it finds that the pleading, motion or other paper was not well grounded in fact, after reasonable inquiry, or warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification or reversal of existing law and was interposed for an improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

Subchapter 10

Directors and Officers

§ 1121. Requirement for and duties of board of directors.

(a) Except as provided in section 1110, each registered corporation must have a board of directors.
(b) All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the registered corporation managed by or under the direction of, its board of directors, subject to any limitation set forth in the articles of incorporation or in an agreement authorized under section 1110.

§ 1122. Qualifications of directors. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe qualifications for directors. A director need not be a resident of the Republic or a shareholder of the registered corporation unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws so prescribe.

§ 1123. Number and election of directors.

(a) A board of directors must consist of one or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(b) The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to, or in the manner provided in, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

(c) Directors are elected at the first annual shareholders’ meeting and at each annual meeting thereafter unless their terms are staggered under section 1126.

§ 1124. Election of directors by certain classes of shareholders. If the articles of incorporation authorize dividing the shares into classes, the articles may also authorize the election of all or a specified number of directors by the holders of one or more authorized classes of shares. A class or classes of shares entitled to elect one or more directors is a separate voting group for purposes of the election of directors.

§ 1125. Terms of directors generally.

(a) The terms of the initial directors of a registered corporation expire at the first shareholders’ meeting at which directors are elected.

(b) The terms of all other directors expire at the next annual shareholders’ meeting following their election unless their terms are staggered under section 1126.

(c) A decrease in the number of directors does not shorten an incumbent director’s term.
(d) The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy expires at the next shareholders’ meeting at which directors are elected.
(e) Despite the expiration of a director’s term, he continues to serve until his successor is elected and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.

§ 1126. Staggered terms for directors. The articles of incorporation may provide for staggering the terms of directors by dividing the total number of directors into two or three groups, with each group containing one-half or one-third of the total, as near as may be. In that event, the terms of directors in the first group expire at the first annual shareholders’ meeting after their election, the terms of the second group expire at the second annual shareholders’ meeting after their election, and the terms of the third group, if any, expire at the third annual shareholders’ meeting after their election. At each annual shareholders’ meeting held thereafter, directors shall be chosen for a term of two years or three years, as the case may be, to succeed those whose terms expire.

§ 1127. Resignation of directors.
(a) A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the board of directors, its chairman, or to the registered corporation.
(b) A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

§ 1128. Removal of directors by shareholders.
(a) The shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause.
(b) If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove him.
(c) If cumulative voting is authorized, a director may not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect him under cumulative voting is voted against his removal. If cumulative voting is not authorized, a director may be removed only if the number of votes cast to remove him exceeds the number of votes cast not to remove him.
(d) A director may be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing him and the meeting notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

§ 1129. Removal of directors by judicial proceeding.

(A) The Supreme Court may remove a director of the registered corporation from office in a proceeding commenced by or in the right of the registered corporation if the Supreme Court finds that:

(1)1 the director engaged in fraudulent conduct with respect to the registered corporation or its shareholders, grossly abused the position of director, or intentionally inflicted harm on the registered corporation; and

(1)2 considering the director’s course of conduct and the inadequacy of other available remedies, removal would be in the best interest of the registered corporation.

(b) A shareholder proceeding on behalf of the registered corporation under subsection (a) shall comply with all of the requirements of subchapter 9, except section 1111(1).

(c) The Supreme Court, in addition to removing the director, may bar the director from reelection for a period prescribed by the court.

(d) Nothing in this section 1129 limits the equitable powers of the Supreme Court to order other relief.

§ 1130. Vacancy on board.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, if a vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:

(1) the shareholders may fill the vacancy;

(2) the board of directors may fill the vacancy; or
(3) if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

(b) If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the holders of shares of that voting group are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the shareholders.

(c) A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date (by reason of a resignation effective at a later date under section 1127(b) or otherwise) may be filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

§ 1131. Compensation of directors. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may fix the compensation of directors.

§ 1132. Meetings.

(a) The board of directors may hold regular or special meetings in or out of the Republic.

(b) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

§ 1133. Action without meeting.

(a) Except to the extent that the articles of incorporation or bylaws require that action by the board of directors be taken at a meeting, action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if each director signs a consent describing the action to be taken and delivers it to the registered corporation.

(b) Action taken under this section is the act of the board of directors when one or more consents signed by all the directors are delivered to the registered corporation. The consent may specify the time at which the action taken is to be effective. A director’s consent may be withdrawn by a revocation signed by the director and delivered to the registered corporation before delivery to the registered corporation of unrevoked written consents signed by all the directors.

(c) A consent signed under this section 1133 has the effect of action taken at a meeting of the board of directors and may be described as such in any document.

§ 1134. Notice of meeting.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice of the date, time, place, or purpose of the meeting.

(b) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for a longer or shorter period, special meetings of the board of directors must be preceded by at least two days’ notice of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not describe the purpose of the special meeting unless required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

§ 1135. Waiver of notice.

(a) A director may waive any notice required by this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. Except as provided by subsection (b), the waiver must be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or corporate records.

(b) A director’s attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice to him of the meeting unless the director at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

§ 1136. Quorum and voting.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number or unless otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, a quorum of a board of directors consists of:

(1) a majority of the fixed number of directors if the registered corporation has a fixed board size; or
(2) a majority of the number of directors prescribed, or if no number is prescribed the number in office immediately before the meeting begins, if the registered corporation has a variable-range size board.

(b) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize a quorum of a board of directors to consist of no fewer than one-third of the fixed or prescribed number of directors determined under subsection (a).

(c) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

(a) A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to the action taken unless:

(1) he objects at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) to holding it or transacting business at the meeting;

(2) his dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; or

(3) he delivers written notice of his dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the registered corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention is not available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

§ 1137. Committees.

(a) Unless this chapter, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws provide otherwise, a board of directors may create one or more committees and appoint one or more members of the board of directors to serve on any such committee.

(b) Unless this chapter otherwise provides, the creation of a committee and appointment of members to it must be approved by the greater of:
(2) a majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken or

(2) the number of directors required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to take action under section 1136.

(c) Sections 1132 through 1136 apply both to committees of the board and to their members.

d) To the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, each committee may exercise the powers of the board of directors under section 1121.

e) A committee may not, however:

   (1) authorize or approve distributions, except according to a formula or method, or within limits, prescribed by the board of directors;

   (2) approve or propose to shareholders action that this chapter requires be approved by shareholders;

   (3) fill vacancies on the board of directors or, subject to subsection (g) on any of its committees; or

   (4) adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws.

(f) The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in section 1138.

(g) The board of directors may appoint one or more directors as alternate members of any committee to replace any absent or disqualified member during the member’s absence or disqualification. Unless the articles of incorporation or the bylaws or the resolution creating the committee provide otherwise, in the event of the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, unanimously, may appoint another director to act in place of the absent or disqualified member.

§ 1138. Standards of conduct for directors.

(c) Each member of the board of directors, when discharging the duties of a director, shall act:
(3) in good faith,

(2) in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the registered corporation.

(b) The members of the board of directors or a committee of the board, when becoming informed in connection with their decision-making function or devoting attention to their oversight function, shall discharge their duties with the care that a person in a like position would reasonably believe appropriate under similar circumstances.

(c) In discharging board or committee duties a director, who does not have knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted, is entitled to rely on the performance by any of the persons specified in subsection (e)(1) or subsection (e)(3) to whom the board may have delegated, formally or informally by course of conduct, the authority or duty to perform one or more of the board’s functions that are delegable under applicable law.

(d) In discharging board or committee duties a director, who does not have knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted, is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by any of the persons specified in subsection (e).

(e) A director is entitled to rely, in accordance with subsection (c) or (d), on:

(1) one or more officers or employees of the registered corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the functions performed or the information, opinions, reports or statements provided;

(2) legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons retained by the registered corporation as to matters involving skills or expertise the director reasonably believes are matters within the particular person’s professional or expert competence or as to which the particular person merits confidence; or

(3) a committee of the board of directors of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

§ 1139. Standards of liability for directors.
(a) A director or shall not be liable to the registered corporation or its shareholders for any decision to take or not to take action, or any failure to take any action, as a director, unless the party asserting liability in a proceeding establishes that:

(1) any provision in the articles of incorporation authorized by section 1033(b)(4) or the protection afforded by section 1162 for action taken in compliance with section 1163 or 1164, if interposed as a bar to the proceeding by the director, does not preclude liability; and

(2) the challenged conduct consisted or was the result of:

(A) action not in good faith; or

(B) a decision

(i) which the director did not reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the registered corporation, or

(ii) as to which the director was not informed to an extent the director reasonably believed appropriate in the circumstances; or

(C) a lack of objectivity due to the director’s familial, financial or business relationship with, or a lack of independence due to the director’s domination or control by, another person having a material interest in the challenged conduct

(i) which relationship or which domination or control could reasonably be expected to have affected the director’s judgment respecting the challenged conduct in a manner adverse to the registered corporation, and

(ii) after a reasonable expectation to such effect has been established, the director shall not have established that the challenged conduct was reasonably believed by the director to be in the best interests of the registered corporation; or
(D) a sustained failure of the director to devote attention to ongoing oversight of the business and affairs of the registered corporation, or a failure to devote timely attention, by making or causing to be made appropriate inquiry, when particular facts and circumstances of significant concern materialize that would alert a reasonably attentive director to the need therefore; or

(E) receipt of a financial benefit to which the director was not entitled or any other breach of the director’s duties to deal fairly with the registered corporation and its shareholders that is actionable under applicable law.

(b) The party seeking to hold the director liable:

(1) for money damages, shall also have the burden of establishing that:

(A) harm to the registered corporation or its shareholders has been suffered, and

(B) the harm suffered was proximately caused by the director’s challenged conduct; or

(2) for other money payment under a legal remedy, such as compensation for the unauthorized use of corporate assets, shall also have whatever persuasion burden may be called for to establish that the payment sought is appropriate in the circumstances; or

(3) for other money payment under an equitable remedy, such as profit recovery by or disgorgement to the registered corporation, shall also have whatever persuasion burden may be called for to establish that the equitable remedy sought is appropriate in the circumstances.

(c) Nothing contained in this section 1139 shall:

(1) in any instance where fairness is at issue, such as consideration of the fairness of a transaction to the registered corporation under section 1162(b)(3), alter the burden of proving the fact or lack of fairness otherwise applicable,
(2) alter the fact or lack of liability of a director under another section of this chapter, such as the provisions governing the consequences of an unlawful distribution under section 1140 or a transactional interest under section 1162, or

(3) affect any rights to which the registered corporation or a shareholder may be entitled under another statute of the Republic or the United States.

§ 1140. Directors’ liability for unlawful distributions.

(a) A director who votes for or assents to a distribution in excess of what may be authorized and made pursuant to section 1086(a) or 1249(a) is personally liable to the registered corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating section 1086 or 1249(a) if the party asserting liability establishes that when taking the action the director did not comply with section 1138.

(b) A director held liable under subsection (a) for an unlawful distribution is entitled to:

(1) contribution from every other director who could be held liable under subsection (a) for the unlawful distribution; and

(2) recoupment from each shareholder of the pro-rata portion of the amount of the unlawful distribution the shareholder accepted, knowing the distribution was made in violation of section 1086(a) or 1249(a).

(c) A proceeding to enforce:

(1) the liability of a director under subsection (a) is barred unless it is commenced within two years after the date:

(A) on which the effect of the distribution was measured under section 1086(e) or (g); or

(B) as of which the violation of section 1086(a) occurred as the consequence of disregard of a restriction in the articles of incorporation, or

(C) on which the distribution of assets to shareholders under section 1249(a) was made; or
(2) contribution or recoupment under subsection (b) is barred unless it is commenced within one year after the liability of the claimant has been finally adjudicated under subsection (a).

§ 1141. Required officers.

(a) A registered corporation has the offices described in its bylaws or designated by the board of directors in accordance with the bylaws.

(b) The board of directors may elect individuals to fill one or more offices of the registered corporation. An officer may appoint one or more officers if authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors.

(c) The bylaws or the board of directors shall assign to one of the officers responsibility for preparing the minutes of the directors’ and shareholders’ meetings and for maintaining and authenticating the records of the registered corporation required to be kept under sections 1271(a) and 1271(e).

(d) The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in a registered corporation.

§ 1142. Duties of officers. Each officer has the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties prescribed by the board of directors or by direction of an officer authorized by the board of directors to prescribe the duties of other officers.

§ 1143. Standards of conduct for officers.

(a) An officer when performing in such capacity, shall act:

(1) in good faith;

(2) with the care that a person in a like position would reasonably exercise under similar circumstances; and

(3) in a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the registered corporation.
(b) In discharging those duties an officer, who does not have knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted, is entitled to rely on

(1) the performance of properly delegated responsibilities by one or more employees of the registered corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in performing the responsibilities delegated; or

(2) information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by one or more employees of the registered corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; or by legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons retained by the registered corporation as to matters involving skills or expertise the officer reasonably believes are matters within the particular person’s professional or expert competence or as to which the particular person merits confidence.

§ 1144. Resignation and removal of officers.

(a) An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the registered corporation. A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective time. If a resignation is made effective at a later time and the board accepts the future effective time, the board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective time if the board provides that the successor does not take office until the effective time.

(b) An officer may be removed at any time with or without cause by: (1) the board of directors; or (2) the officer (including that officer’s successor) who appointed such officer, unless the bylaws or the board of directors, acting in accordance with the bylaws, provide otherwise.

(a) The appointment of an officer does not itself create contract rights.

(b) An officer’s removal does not affect the officer’s contract rights, if any, with the registered corporation. An officer’s resignation does not affect the registered corporation’s contract rights, if any, with the officer.
Subchapter 11

Indemnification

§ 1151. Subchapter Definitions. In this subchapter:

(a) “Corporation” includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a registered corporation in a merger.

(b) “Director” or “officer” means an individual who is or was a director or officer, respectively, of a registered corporation or who, while a director or officer of the registered corporation, is or was serving at the registered corporation’s request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another registered, domestic, or foreign registered corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other entity. A director or officer is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the registered corporation’s request if his duties to the registered corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, him to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. “Director” or “officer” includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a director or officer.

(a) “Disinterested director” means a director who, at the time of a vote referred to in section 1154(c) or a vote or selection referred to in section 1156(b) or (c), is not:

(1) a party to the proceeding, or

(2) an individual having a familial, financial, professional or employment relationship with the director whose indemnification or advance for expenses is the subject of the decision being made, which relationship would, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director’s judgment when voting on the decision being made.

(d) “Expenses” includes counsel fees.
(e) “Liability” means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine (including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), or reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(c) “Official capacity” means:

(1) when used with respect to a director, the office of director in a registered corporation; and

(2) when used with respect to an officer, as contemplated in section 1157, the office in a registered corporation held by the officer. “Official capacity” does not include service for any other domestic or foreign registered corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other entity.

(g) “Party” means an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made, a defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(h) “Proceeding” means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

§ 1152. Permissible indemnification.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section 8.51, a registered corporation may indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding because he is a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

(1) he conducted himself in good faith; and

(2) he reasonably believed:

(A) in the case of conduct in his official capacity, that his conduct was in the best interests of the registered corporation; and

(B) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the registered corporation; and

--72--
(C) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; or

(2) he engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the articles of incorporation as authorized by section 1033(b)(5).

(b) A director’s conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose he reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in, and the beneficiaries of, the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of subsection (a)(1)(A)(ii).

(c) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, is not, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the relevant standard of conduct described in this section.

(d) Unless ordered by a court under section 1155(a)(3), a registered corporation may not indemnify a director:

(1) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the registered corporation, except for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director has met the relevant standard of conduct under subsection (a); or

(2) in connection with any proceeding with respect to conduct for which he was adjudged liable on the basis that he received a financial benefit to which he was not entitled, whether or not involving action in his official capacity.

§ 1153. Mandatory indemnification. A registered corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he was a party because he was a director of the registered corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the proceeding.

§ 1154. Advance for expenses.
(a) A registered corporation may, before final disposition of a proceeding, advance funds to pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding because he is a director if he delivers to the registered corporation:

(1) a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the relevant standard of conduct described in section 1152 or that the proceeding involves conduct for which liability has been eliminated under a provision of the articles of incorporation as authorized by section 1033(b)(4); and

(2) his written undertaking to repay any funds advanced if he is not entitled to mandatory indemnification under section 1153 and it is ultimately determined under section 1155 or section 1156 that he has not met the relevant standard of conduct described in section 1152.

(b) The undertaking required by subsection (a)(2) must be an unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to the financial ability of the director to make repayment.

(c) Authorizations under this section 1154 shall be made:

(1) by the board of directors:

(A) if there are two or more disinterested directors, by a majority vote of all the disinterested directors (a majority of whom shall for such purpose constitute a quorum) or by a majority of the members of a committee of two or more disinterested directors appointed by such a vote; or

(B) if there are fewer than two disinterested directors, by the vote necessary for action by the board in accordance with section 1136(c), in which authorization directors who do not qualify as disinterested directors may participate; or

(2) by the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who at the time does not qualify as a disinterested director may not be voted on the authorization.
§ 1155. Court-ordered indemnification and advance for expenses.

(a) A director who is a party to a proceeding because he is a director may apply for indemnification or an advance for expenses to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. After receipt of an application and after giving any notice it considers necessary, the court shall:

(1) order indemnification if the court determines that the director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under section 1153;

(2) order indemnification or advance for expenses if the court determines that the director is entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses pursuant to a provision authorized by section 1159(a); or

(3) order indemnification or advance for expenses if the court determines, in view of all the relevant circumstances, that it is fair and reasonable

(A) to indemnify the director, or

(B) to advance expenses to the director, even if he has not met the relevant standard of conduct set forth in section 1152(a), failed to comply with section 1154 or was adjudged liable in a proceeding referred to in subsection 1152(d)(1) or (d)(2), but if he was adjudged so liable his indemnification shall be limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

(b) If the court determines that the director is entitled to indemnification under subsection (a)(1) or to indemnification or advance for expenses under subsection (a)(2), it shall also order the registered corporation to pay the director’s reasonable expenses incurred in connection with obtaining court-ordered indemnification or advance for expenses. If the court determines that the director is entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses under subsection (a)(3), it may also order the registered corporation to pay the director’s reasonable expenses to obtain court-ordered indemnification or advance for expenses.

§ 1156. Determination and authorization of indemnification.
(a) A registered corporation may not indemnify a director under section 1152 unless authorized for a specific proceeding after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible because he has met the relevant standard of conduct set forth in section 1152.

(b) The determination shall be made:

(1) if there are two or more disinterested directors, by the board of directors by a majority vote of all the disinterested directors (a majority of whom shall for such purpose constitute a quorum), or by a majority of the members of a committee of two or more disinterested directors appointed by such a vote; or

(2) by special legal counsel:

(A) selected in the manner prescribed in subdivision (1); or

(B) if there are fewer than two disinterested directors, selected by the board of directors (in which selection directors who do not qualify as disinterested directors may participate); or

(3) by the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who at the time does not qualify as a disinterested director may not be voted on the determination.

(c) Authorization of indemnification shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if there are fewer than two disinterested directors or if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification shall be made by those entitled under subsection (b)(2)(B) to select special legal counsel.

§ 1157. Officers

(a) A registered corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under this subchapter to an officer of the registered corporation who is a party to a proceeding because he is an officer of the registered corporation:

(1) to the same extent as a director; and
(2) if he is an officer but not a director, to such further extent as may be provided by the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, a resolution of the board of directors, or contract except for:

(A) liability in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the registered corporation other than for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding or

(B) liability arising out of conduct that constitutes

   (i) receipt by him of a financial benefit to which he is not entitled; or

   (ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the registered corporation or the shareholders; or

   (iii) an intentional violation of criminal law.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a)(2) shall apply to an officer who is also a director if the basis on which he is made a party to the proceeding is an act or omission solely as an officer.

(c) An officer of a registered corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under section 1153, and may apply to a court under section 1155 for indemnification or an advance for expenses, in each case to the same extent to which a director may be entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses under those provisions.

§ 1158. Insurance. A registered corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is a director or officer of the registered corporation, or who, while a director or officer of the registered corporation, serves at the registered corporation’s request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another domestic or foreign registered corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other entity, against liability asserted against or incurred by him in that capacity or arising from his status as a director or officer, whether or not the registered corporation would have power to indemnify or advance expenses to him against the same liability under this subchapter.
§ 1159. Variation by corporate action; application of subchapter.

(a) A registered corporation may, by a provision in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or in a resolution adopted or a contract approved by its board of directors or shareholders, obligate itself in advance of the act or omission giving rise to a proceeding to provide indemnification in accordance with section 1152 or advance funds to pay for or reimburse expenses in accordance with section 1154. Any such obligatory provision shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements for authorization referred to in section 1154(c) and in section 1156(c). Any such provision that obligates the registered corporation to provide indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by law shall be deemed to obligate the registered corporation to advance funds to pay for or reimburse expenses in accordance with section 1154 to the fullest extent permitted by law, unless the provision specifically provides otherwise.

(b) Any provision pursuant to subsection (a) shall not obligate the registered corporation to indemnify or advance expenses to a director of a predecessor of the registered corporation, pertaining to conduct with respect to the predecessor, unless otherwise specifically provided. Any provision for indemnification or advance for expenses in the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors or shareholders of a predecessor of the registered corporation in a merger or in a contract to which the predecessor is a party, existing at the time the merger takes effect, shall be governed by section 1207(a)(4).

(c) A registered corporation may, by a provision in its articles of incorporation, limit any of the rights to indemnification or advance for expenses created by or pursuant to this subchapter.

(d) This subchapter does not limit a registered corporation’s power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director or an officer in connection with his appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when he is not a party.

(e) This subchapter does not limit a registered corporation’s power to indemnify, advance expenses to or provide or maintain insurance on behalf of an employee or agent.

§ 1160. Exclusivity of subchapter.
A registered corporation may provide indemnification or advance expenses to a director or an officer only as permitted by this subchapter.

Subchapter 12

Directors’ Conflicting Interest Transactions

§ 1161. Subchapter definitions.

In this subchapter:

(a) “Conflicting interest” with respect to a registered corporation means the interest a director of the registered corporation has respecting a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the registered corporation (or by a subsidiary of the registered corporation or any other entity in which the registered corporation has a controlling interest) if:

(1) whether or not the transaction is brought before the board of directors of the registered corporation for action, the director knows at the time of commitment that he or a related person is a party to the transaction or has a beneficial financial interest in or so closely linked to the transaction and of such financial significance to the director or a related person that the interest would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director’s judgment if he were called upon to vote on the transaction; or

(2) the transaction is brought (or is of such character and significance to the registered corporation that it would in the normal course be brought) before the board of directors of the registered corporation for action, and the director knows at the time of commitment that any of the following persons is either a party to the transaction or has a beneficial financial interest in or so closely linked to the transaction and of such financial significance to the person that the interest would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director’s judgment if he were called upon to vote on the transaction: (A) an entity (other than the registered corporation) of which the director is a director, general partner, agent, or employee; (B) a person that controls one or more of the entities specified in subclause (A) or an entity that is controlled by, or is under common control... with, one or more of the entities specified in subclause (A); or (C) an individual who is a general partner, principal, or employer of the director.

(b) “Director’s conflicting interest transaction” with respect to a registered corporation means a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the registered corporation (or by a subsidiary of the registered corporation or any other entity in which the registered corporation has a controlling interest) respecting which a director of the registered corporation has a conflicting interest.

(C) “Related person” of a director means:

1. the spouse (or a parent or sibling thereof) of the director, or a child, grandchild, sibling, parent (or spouse of any thereof) of the director, or an individual residing in the same dwelling the director, or a trust or estate of which an individual specified in this subsection is a substantial beneficiary; or

2. a trust, estate, incompetent, conservatee, or minor of which the director is a fiduciary.

(D) “Required disclosure” means disclosure by the director who has a conflicting interest of:

(2) the existence and nature of his conflicting interest; and

(2) all facts known to him respecting the subject matter of the transaction that an ordinarily prudent person would reasonably believe to be material to a judgment about whether or not to proceed with the transaction.

(e) “Time of commitment” respecting a transaction means the time when the transaction is consummated or, if made pursuant to contract, the time when the registered corporation or its subsidiary or the entity in which it has a controlling interest becomes contractually obligated so that its unilateral withdrawal from the transaction would entail significant loss, liability, or other damage.

-80-
§ 1162. Judicial action.

(a) A transaction effected or proposed to be effected by a registered corporation or by a subsidiary of the registered corporation or any other entity in which the registered corporation has a controlling interest that is not a director’s conflicting interest transaction may not be enjoined, set aside, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions, in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the registered corporation, because a director of the registered corporation, or any person with whom or which he has a personal, economic, or other association, has an interest in the transaction.

(b) A director’s conflicting interest transaction may not be enjoined, set aside, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions, in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the registered corporation, because the director, or any person with whom or which he has a personal, economic, or other association, has an interest in the transaction if:

(1) directors’ action respecting the transaction was at any time taken in compliance with section 1163;

(2) shareholders’ action respecting the transaction was at any time taken in compliance with section 1164; or

(3) the transaction, judged according to the circumstances at the time of commitment, is established to have been fair to the registered corporation.

§ 1163. Directors’ action.

(a) Directors’ action respecting a transaction is effective for purposes of section 1162(b)(1) if the transaction received the affirmative vote of a majority (but no fewer than two) of those qualified directors on the board of directors or on a duly empowered committee of the board who voted on the transaction after either required disclosure to them (to the extent the information was not known by them) or compliance with subsection (b); provided that action by a committee is so effective only if:

(1) all its members are qualified directors; and
(2) its members are either all the qualified directors on the board or are appointed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified directors on the board.

(b) If a director has a conflicting interest respecting a transaction, but neither he nor a related person of the director specified in section 1161(c)(1) is a party to the transaction, and if the director has a duty under law or professional canon, or a duty of confidentiality to another person, respecting information relating to the transaction such that the director may not make the disclosure described in section 1161(d)(2), then disclosure is sufficient for purposes of subsection (a) if the director (1) discloses to the directors voting on the transaction the existence and nature of his conflicting interest and informs them of the character and limitations imposed by that duty before their vote on the transaction, and (2) plays no part, directly or indirectly, in their deliberations or vote.

(c) A majority (but no fewer than two) of all the qualified directors on the board of directors, or on the committee, constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with this section 1163. Directors’ action that otherwise complies with this section 1163 is not affected by the presence or vote of a director who is not a qualified director.

(d) For purposes of this section 1163, “qualified director” means, with respect to a director’s conflicting interest transaction, any director who does not have either (1) a conflicting interest respecting the transaction, or (2) a familial, financial, professional, or employment relationship with a second director who does have a conflicting interest respecting the transaction, which relationship would, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the first director’s judgment when voting on the transaction.

§ 1164. Shareholders’ action.

(a) Shareholders’ action respecting a transaction is effective for purposes of section 1162(b)(2) if a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified shares were cast in favor of the transaction after:

(1) notice to shareholders describing the director’s conflicting interest transaction; and
(2) provision of the information referred to in subsection (d); and

(3) required disclosure to the shareholders who voted on the transaction (to the extent the information was not known by them).

(b) For purposes of this section 1164, “qualified shares” means any shares entitled to vote with respect to the director’s conflicting interest transaction except shares that, to the knowledge, before the vote, of the secretary (or other officer or agent of the registered corporation authorized to tabulate votes), are beneficially owned (or the voting of which is controlled) by a director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction or by a related person of the director, or both.

(c) A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified shares constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with this section 1164. Subject to the provisions of subsections (d) and (e), shareholders’ action that otherwise complies with this section 1164 is not affected by the presence of holders, or the voting, of shares that are not qualified shares.

(d) For purposes of compliance with subsection (a), a director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction shall, before the shareholders’ vote, inform the secretary (or other office or agent of the registered corporation authorized to tabulate votes) of the number, and the identity of persons holding or controlling the vote, of all shares that the director knows are beneficially owned, or the voting of which is controlled by the director or by a related person of the director, or both.

(e) If a shareholders’ vote does not comply with subsection (a) solely because of a failure of a director to comply with subsection (d), and if the director establishes that his failure did not determine and was not intended by him to influence the outcome of the vote, the court may, with or without further proceedings respecting section 1162(b)(3), take such action respecting the transaction and the director, and give such effect, if any, to the shareholders’ vote, as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

Subchapter 13

−83−
Subchapter 14

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation and By laws

§ 1181. Authority to amend.
(a) A registered corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time to add or change a provision that is required or permitted in the articles of incorporation as of the effective date of the amendment or to delete a provision not required in the articles of incorporation.
(b) A shareholder of the registered corporation does not have a vested property right resulting from any provision in the articles of incorporation, including provisions relating to management, control, capital structure, dividend entitlement, or purpose or duration of the registered corporation.

§ 1182. Amendment before issuance of shares. If a registered corporation has not yet issued shares, its board of directors, or its incorporators if it has no board of directors, may adopt one or more amendments to the registered corporation’s articles of incorporation.

§ 1183. Amendment by board of directors and shareholders. If a registered corporation has issued shares, an amendment to the articles of incorporation shall be adopted in the following manner:
(a) The proposed amendment must be adopted by the board of directors.
(b) Except as provided in sections 1185, 1187, and 1188, after adopting the proposed amendment the board of directors must submit the amendment to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors must also transmit to the share holders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the amendment, unless the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, in which case the board of directors must transmit to the shareholders the basis for that determination.
(c) The board of directors may condition its submission of the amendment to the shareholders on any basis.
(d) If the amendment is required to be approved by the shareholders, and the approval is to be given at a meeting, the registered corporation must notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the amendment is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the amendment and must contain or be accompanied by a copy of the amendment.

(e) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (c), requires a greater vote or a greater number of shares to be present, approval of the amendment requires the approval of the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment exists, and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group on the amendment, except as provided in section 1184(c), the approval of each such separate voting group at a meeting at which a quorum of the voting group consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment by that voting group exists.

§ 1184. Voting on amendments by voting groups.

(a) If a registered corporation has more than one class of shares outstanding, the holders of the outstanding shares of a class are entitled to vote as a separate voting group (if shareholder voting is otherwise required by this chapter) on a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation if the amendment would:

(1) effect an exchange or reclassification of all or part of the shares of the class into shares of another class;
(2) effect an exchange or reclassification, or create the right of exchange, of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of the class;
(3) change the rights, preferences, or limitations of all or part of the shares of the class;
(4) change the shares of all or part of the class into a different number of shares of the same class;
(5) create a new class of shares having rights or preferences with respect to distributions or to dissolution that are prior or superior, to the shares of the class;

(6) increase the rights, preferences, or number of authorized shares of any class that, after giving effect to the amendment, have rights or preferences with respect to distributions or to dissolution that are prior or superior, to the shares of the class;

(7) limit or deny an existing preemptive right of all or part of the shares of the class; or

(8) cancel or otherwise affect rights to distributions that have accumulated but not yet been authorized on all or part of the shares of the class.

(b) If a proposed amendment would affect a series of a class of shares in one or more of the ways described in subsection (a), the holders of shares of that series are entitled to vote as a separate voting group on the proposed amendment.

(c) If a proposed amendment that entitles the holders of two or more classes or series of shares to vote as separate voting groups under this section 1184 would affect those two or more classes or series in the same or a substantially similar way, the holders of shares of all the classes or series so affected must vote together as a single voting group on the proposed amendment, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or required by the board of directors.

(d) A class or series of shares is entitled to the voting rights granted by this section although the articles of incorporation provide that the shares are nonvoting shares.

§ 1185. Amendment by board of directors. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a registered corporation’s board of directors may adopt amendments to the registered corporation’s articles of incorporation without shareholder approval:

(a) to extend the duration of the registered corporation if it was incorporated at a time when limited duration was required by law;

(b) to delete the names and addresses of the initial directors;
Senate Bill No.___________

§ 1186. Articles of amendment. After an amendment to the articles of incorporation has been adopted and approved in the manner required by this chapter and by the articles of incorporation, the registered corporation shall deliver to the registrar, for filing, articles of amendment, which shall set forth:

(a) the name of the registered corporation;

(b) the text of each amendment adopted;
Senate Bill No.___________

(c) if an amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued shares, provisions for implementing the amendment if not contained in the amendment itself;

(d) the date of each amendment’s adoption; and

(e) if an amendment:

(1) was adopted by the incorporators or board of directors without shareholder approval, a statement that the amendment was duly approved by the incorporators or by the board of directors, as the case may be, and that shareholder approval was not required;

(2) required approval by the shareholders, a statement that the amendment was duly approved by the shareholders in the manner required by this chapter and by the articles of incorporation.

§ 1187. Restated articles of incorporation.

(a) A registered corporation’s board of directors may restate its articles of incorporation at any time, with or without shareholder approval, to consolidate all amendments into a single document.

(b) If the restated articles include one or more new amendments that require shareholder approval, the amendments must be adopted and approved as provided in section 1183.

(c) A registered corporation that restates its articles of incorporation shall deliver to the registrar for filing articles of restatement setting forth the name of the registered corporation and the text of the restated articles of incorporation together with a certificate which states that the restated articles consolidate all amendments into a single document and, if a new amendment is included in the restated articles, which also includes the statements required under section 1186.

(d) Duly adopted restated articles of incorporation supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.
(e) The registrar may certify restated articles of incorporation as the articles of incorporation currently in effect, without including the certificate information required by subsection (c).

§ 1188. Amendment pursuant to reorganization.

(a) A registered corporation’s articles of incorporation may be amended without action by the board of directors or shareholders to carry out a plan of reorganization ordered or decreed by a court of competent jurisdiction under the authority of a law of the United States.

(b) The individual or individuals designated by the court shall deliver to the registrar for filing articles of amendment setting forth:

(1) the name of the registered corporation;

(2) the text of each amendment approved by the court;

(3) the date of the court’s order or decree approving the articles of amendment;

(4) the title of the reorganization proceeding in which the order or decree was entered; and

(5) a statement that the court had jurisdiction of the proceeding under federal statute.

(c) This section 1188 does not apply after entry of a final decree in the reorganization proceeding even though the court retains jurisdiction of the proceeding for limited purposes unrelated to consummation of the reorganization plan.

§ 1189. Effect of amendment. An amendment to articles of incorporation does not affect a cause of action existing against or in favor of the registered corporation, a proceeding to which the registered corporation is a party, or the existing rights of persons other than shareholders of the registered corporation. An amendment changing a registered corporation’s name does not abate a proceeding brought by or against the registered corporation in its former name.

§ 1190. Amendment by board of directors or shareholders.
(a) A registered corporation’s shareholders may amend or repeal the registered corporation’s bylaws.

(b) A registered corporation’s board of directors may amend or repeal the registered corporation’s bylaws, unless:

   (1) the articles of incorporation or section 1191 reserve that power exclusively to the shareholders in whole or part; or

   (2) the shareholders in amending, repealing, or adopting a bylaw expressly provide that the board of directors may not amend, repeal, or reinstate that bylaw.

§ 1191. Bylaw increasing quorum or voting requirement for shareholders.

(a) A bylaw that increases a quorum or voting requirement for the shareholders may be amended or repealed:

   (1) if adopted by the shareholders, unless the bylaw otherwise provides; or

   (2) if adopted by the board of directors.

(b) A bylaw adopted or amended by the shareholders that increases a quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may provide that it can be amended or repealed only by a specified vote of either the shareholders or the board of directors.

(c) Action by the board of directors under subsection (a) to amend or repeal a bylaw that changes the quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

§ 1192. Bylaw increasing quorum or voting requirement for directors.

(a) A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may be amended or repealed:

   (1) if adopted by the shareholders; or

   (2) if adopted by the board of directors.
(b) A bylaw adopted or amended by the shareholders that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may provide that it may be amended or repealed only by a specified vote of either the shareholders or the board of directors.

(c) Action by the board of directors under subsection (a)(2) to adopt or amend a bylaw that changes the quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

Subchapter 15

Merger and Share Exchange

§ 1201. Definitions.

As used in this subchapter 15:

(a) “Interests” means the proprietary interests in an other entity.

(b) “Merger” means a business combination pursuant to section 1102.

(c) “Organizational documents” means the basic document or documents that create, or determine the internal governance of, an other entity.

(d) “Other entity” means any association or legal entity, other than a registered, domestic, or foreign corporation, organized to conduct business, including, without limitation, limited partnerships, general partnerships, limited liability partnerships, limited liability companies, joint ventures, joint stock companies, and business trusts.

(e) “Party to a merger” or “party to a share exchange” means any registered, domestic, or foreign corporation or other entity that will either:

(1) merge under a plan of merger;

(2) acquire shares or interests of another corporation or an other entity in a share exchange; or

(3) have all of its shares or interests or all of one or more classes or series of its shares or interests acquired in a share exchange.

(f) “Share exchange” means a business combination pursuant to section 1203.
(g) "Survivor" in a merger means the corporation or other entity into which one or more other corporations or other entities are merged. A survivor of a merger may preexist the merger or be created by the merger.

§ 1202. Merger.

(a) One or more registered corporations may merge with a registered, domestic, or foreign corporation pursuant to a plan of merger.

(b) A domestic or foreign corporation, or a domestic or foreign other entity, may be a party to the merger, or may be created by the terms of the plan of merger, only if:

(1) the merger is permitted by the laws under which the corporation or other entity is organized or by which it is governed; and

(2) in effecting the merger, the corporation or other entity complies with such laws and with its articles of incorporation or organizational documents.

(c) The plan of merger must include:

(1) the name of each corporation or other entity that will merge and the name of the corporation or other entity that will be the survivor of the merger;

(2) the terms and conditions of the merger;

(3) the manner and basis of converting the shares of each merging corporation and interests of each merging other entity into shares, or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing;

(4) the articles of incorporation of any corporation, or the organizational documents of any other entity, to be created by the merger, or if a new corporation or other entity is not to be created by the merger, any amendments to the survivor’s articles of incorporation or organizational documents; and

(5) any other provisions required by the laws under which any party to the merger is organized or by which it is governed, or by the articles of incorporation or organizational documents of any such party.
(d) The terms described in subsections (c)(2) and (c)(3) may be made dependent on facts ascertainable outside the plan of merger, provided that those facts are objectively ascertainable. The term “facts” includes, but is not limited to, the occurrence of any event, including a determination or action by any person or body, including the corporation.

(e) The plan of merger may also include a provision that the plan may be amended before filing the articles of merger with the registrar, provided that if the shareholders of a domestic corporation that is a party to the merger are required or permitted to vote on the plan, the plan must provide that after approval of the plan by such shareholders the plan may not be amended to:

(1) change the amount or kind of shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, or other property to be received by the shareholders of or owners of interests in any party to the merger upon conversion of their shares or interests under the plan;

(2) change the articles of incorporation of any corporation, or the organizational documents of any other entity, that will survive or be created as a result of the merger, except for changes permitted by section 1004 or by comparable provisions of the laws under which the foreign corporation or other entity is organized or governed; or

(3) change any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect such shareholders in any material respect.

§ 1203. Share exchange.

(a) Through a share exchange:

(1) a registered corporation may acquire all of the shares of one or more classes or series of shares of another registered, domestic, or foreign corporation, or all of the interests of one or more classes or series of interests of a registered, domestic, or foreign other entity, in exchange for shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing, pursuant to a plan of share exchange, or
(2) all of the shares of one or more classes or series of shares of a domestic corporation may be acquired by another domestic or foreign corporation or other entity, in exchange for shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing, pursuant to a plan of share exchange.

(b) A domestic or foreign corporation, or a domestic or foreign other entity, may be a party to the share exchange only if:

(1) the share exchange is permitted by the laws under which the corporation or other entity is organized or by which it is governed; and

(2) in effecting the share exchange, the corporation or other entity complies with such laws and with its articles of incorporation or organizational documents.

(c) The plan of share exchange must include:

(1) the name of each corporation or other entity whose shares or interests will be acquired and the name of the corporation or other entity that will acquire those shares or interests;

(2) the terms and conditions of the share exchange;

(3) the manner and basis of exchanging shares of a corporation or interests in an other entity whose shares or interests will be acquired under the share exchange into shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing; and

(4) any other provisions required by the laws under which any party to the share exchange is organized or by the articles of incorporation or organizational documents of any such party.

(d) The terms described in subsections (c)(2) and (c)(3) may be made dependent on facts ascertainable outside the plan of share exchange, provided that those facts are objectively ascertainable. The term “facts” includes, but is not limited to, the occurrence of any event, including a determination or action by any person or body, including the corporation.
(e) The plan of share exchange may also include a provision that the plan may be amended before filing of the articles of share exchange with the registrar, provided that if the shareholders of a domestic corporation that is a party to the share exchange are required or permitted to vote on the plan, the plan must provide that after approval of the plan by such shareholders the plan may not be amended to:

1. change the amount or kind of shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, or other property to be issued by the corporation or to be received by the shareholders of or owners of interests in any party to the share exchange in exchange for their shares or interests under the plan; or
2. change any of the terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect such shareholders in any material respect.

(f) This section 1203 does not limit the power of a registered corporation to acquire shares of another corporation or interests in another entity in a transaction other than a share exchange.

§ 1204. Action on plan. In the case of a registered corporation that is a party to a merger or share exchange:

(a) The plan of merger or share exchange must be adopted by the board of directors.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (g) and in section 1205, after adopting the plan of merger or share exchange the board of directors must submit the plan to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors must also transmit to the shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the plan, unless the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, in which case the board of directors must transmit to the shareholders the basis for that determination.

(c) The board of directors may condition its submission of the plan of merger or share exchange to the shareholders on any basis.
(d) If the plan of merger or share exchange is required to be approved by the shareholders, and if the approval is to be given at a meeting, the registered corporation must notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders’ at which the plan is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the plan and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. If the registered corporation is to be merged into an existing corporation or other entity, the notice shall also include or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the articles of incorporation or organizational documents of that corporation or other entity. If the registered corporation is to be merged into a corporation or other entity that is to be created pursuant to the merger, the notice shall include or be accompanied by a copy or a summary of the articles of incorporation or organizational documents of the new corporation or other entity.

(e) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (c), requires a greater vote or a greater number of votes to be present, the approval of the plan of merger or share exchange shall require the approval of the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan exists, and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group on the plan of merger or share exchange, the approval of each such separate voting group at a meeting at which a quorum of the voting group consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the merger or share exchange by that voting group is present.

(f) Separate voting by voting groups is required:

(1) on a plan of merger, by each class or series of shares that;

(A) are to be converted, pursuant to the provisions of the plan of merger, into shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing; or
(B) would have a right to vote as a separate group on a provision in the plan that, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would require action by separate voting groups under section 1184;

(2) on a plan of share exchange, by each class or series of shares included in the exchange, with each class or series constituting a separate voting group; and

(3) on a plan of merger or share exchange, if the voting group is entitled under the articles of incorporation to vote as a voting group to approve a plan of merger or share exchange.

(g) Unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide, approval by the registered corporation’s shareholders of a plan of merger or share exchange is not required if:

(1) the registered corporation will survive the merger or is the acquiring corporation in a share exchange;

(2) except for amendments permitted by section 1185, its articles of incorporation will not be changed;

(3) each shareholder of the registered corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger or share exchange will hold the same number of shares, with identical preferences, limitations, and relative rights, immediately after the effective date of change; and

(4) the issuance in the merger or share exchange of shares or other securities convertible into or rights exercisable for shares does not require a vote under section 1076(f).

(h) If as a result of a merger or share exchange one or more shareholders of a registered corporation would become subject to personal liability for the obligations or liabilities of any other person or entity, approval of the plan of merger shall require the execution, by each such shareholder, of a separate written consent to become subject to such personal liability.

§ 1205. Merger between parent and subsidiary or between subsidiaries.
(a) A parent registered corporation that owns shares of a registered, domestic, or foreign subsidiary corporation that carry at least 90 percent of the voting power of each class and series of the outstanding shares of the subsidiary that have voting power may merge the subsidiary into itself or into another such subsidiary, or merge itself into the subsidiary, without the approval of the board of directors or shareholders of the subsidiary, unless the articles of incorporation of any of the corporations otherwise provide, and unless, in the case of a foreign subsidiary, approval by the subsidiary’s board of directors or shareholders is required by the laws under which the subsidiary is organized.

(b) If under subsection (a) approval of a merger by the subsidiary’s shareholders is not required, the parent corporation shall, within ten days after the effective date of the merger, notify each of the subsidiary’s shareholders that the merger has become effective.

(c) Except as provided in subsections (a) and (b), a merger between a parent and a subsidiary shall be governed by the provisions of subchapter 15 applicable to mergers generally.

§ 1206. Articles of merger or share exchange.

(a) After a plan of merger or share exchange has been adopted and approved as required by this chapter, articles of merger or share exchange shall be executed on behalf of each party to the merger or share exchange by any officer or other duly authorized representative.
The articles shall set forth:

(1) the names of the parties to the merger or share exchange and the date on which the merger or share exchange occurred or is to be effective;

(2) if the articles of incorporation of the survivor of a merger are amended, or if a new corporation is created as a result of a merger, the amendments to the survivor’s articles of incorporation or the articles of incorporation of the new corporation;

(3) if the plan of merger or share exchange required approval by the shareholders of a domestic corporation that was a party to the merger or share exchange, a statement that the plan was duly approved by the shareholders and, if voting by any separate voting group was required, by each such separate voting group, in the manner required by this chapter and the articles of incorporation;

(4) if the plan of merger or share exchange did not require approval by the shareholders of a domestic corporation that was a party to the merger or share exchange, a statement to that effect; and

(5) as to each domestic or foreign corporation and each other entity that was a party to the merger or share exchange, a statement that the plan and the performance of its terms were duly authorized by all action required by the laws under which the corporation or other entity is organized or by which it is governed, and by its articles of incorporation or organizational documents.

(b) articles of merger or share exchange shall be delivered to the registrar for filing by the survivor of the merger or the acquiring corporation in a share exchange and shall take effect on the effective date.

§ 1207. Effect of merger or share exchange.

(a) When a merger becomes effective:

(1) the corporation or other entity that is designated in the plan of merger as the survivor continues or comes into existence, as the case may be;

(2) the separate existence of every corporation or other entity that is merged into the survivor ceases;

(3) all property owned by, and every contract right possessed by, each corporation or other entity that merges into the survivor is vested in the survivor without reversion or impairment;

(4) all liabilities of each corporation or other entity that is merged into the survivor are vested in the survivor;

(5) the name of the survivor may, but need not be, substituted in any pending proceeding for the name of any party to the merger whose separate existence ceased in the merger;
(6) the articles of incorporation or organizational documents of the survivor are amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger;

(7) the articles of incorporation or organizational documents of a survivor that is created by the merger become effective; and

(8) the shares of each corporation that is a party to the merger, and the interests in an other entity that is a party to a merger, that are to be converted under the plan of merger into shares, interests, obligations, rights to acquire securities, other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing, are converted, and the former holders of such shares or interests are entitled only to the rights provided to them in the plan of merger or to any rights they may have under subchapter 17.

(b) When a share exchange becomes effective, the shares of each registered or domestic corporation that are to be exchanged for shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or securities, other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing, are entitled only to the rights provided to them in the plan of share exchange or to any rights they may have under subchapter 17.

(c) Any shareholder of a registered or domestic corporation that is a party to a merger or share exchange who, before the merger or share exchange, was liable for the liabilities or obligations of such corporation, shall not be released from such liabilities or obligations by reason of the merger or share exchange.

(d) Upon a merger becoming effective, a foreign corporation, or a foreign other entity, that is the survivor of the merger is deemed to:

(1) appoint the registrar as its agent for service of process in a proceeding to enforce the rights of shareholders of each domestic corporation that is a party to the merger who exercise appraisal rights, and

(2) agree that it will promptly pay the amount, if any, to which such shareholders are entitled under subchapter 17.

§ 1208. Abandonment of merger or share exchange.
(a) Unless otherwise provided in a plan of merger or share exchange or in the laws under which a domestic or foreign corporation or a domestic or foreign other entity that is a party to a merger or a share exchange is organized or by which it is governed, after the plan has been adopted and approved as required by this chapter, and at any time before the merger or share exchange has become effective, it may be abandoned by any party thereto without action by the party’s shareholders or owners of interests, in accordance with any procedures set forth in the plan of merger or share exchange or, if no such procedures are set forth in the plan, in the manner determined by the board of directors of a corporation, or the managers of an other entity, subject to any contractual rights of other parties to the merger or share exchange.

(b) If a merger or share exchange is abandoned under subsection (a) after articles of merger or share exchange have been filed with the registrar but before the merger or share exchange has become effective, a statement that the merger or share exchange has been abandoned in accordance with this section, executed on behalf of a party to the merger or share exchange by an officer or other duly authorized representative, shall be delivered to the registrar for filing before the effective date of the merger or share exchange. Upon filing, the statement shall take effect and the merger or share exchange shall be deemed abandoned and shall not become effective.

Subchapter 16

Sale of Assets

§ 1211. Sale of assets in regular course of business and mortgage of assets.

(a) A registered corporation may, on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the board of directors:

(1) sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of its property in the usual and regular course of business;

(2) mortgage, pledge, dedicate to the repayment of indebtedness (whether with or without recourse), or otherwise encumber any or all of its property whether or not in the usual and regular course of business; or
(3) transfer any or all of its property to a registered corporation all the shares of which are owned by the registered corporation.

(b) Unless the articles of incorporation require it, approval by the shareholders of a transaction described in subsection (a) is not required.

§ 1212. Sale of assets other than in regular course of business.

(a) A sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of assets, other than a disposition described in section 1211, requires approval of the registered corporation’s shareholders if the disposition would leave the registered corporation without a significant continuing business activity. If a registered corporation retains a business activity that represented at least 25 percent of total assets at the end of the most recently completed fiscal year, and 25 percent of either income from continuing operations before taxes or revenues from continuing operations for that fiscal year, in each case of the registered corporation and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, the registered corporation will conclusively be deemed to have retained a significant continuing business activity.

(b) A disposition that requires approval of the shareholders under subsection (a) shall be initiated by a resolution by the board of directors authorizing the disposition. After adoption of such a resolution, the board of directors shall submit the proposed disposition to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors shall also transmit to the shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the proposed disposition, unless the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, in which case the board of directors shall transmit to the shareholders the basis for that determination.

(c) The board of directors may condition its submission of a disposition to the shareholders under subsection (b) on any basis.

(d) If a disposition is required to be approved by the shareholders under subsection
(a), and if the approval is to be given at a meeting, the registered corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the disposition is to be submitted for approval. The notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the disposition and shall contain a description of the disposition, including the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the registered corporation.

(e) Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (c) require a greater vote, or a greater number of votes to be present, the approval of a disposition by the shareholders shall require the approval of the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the disposition exists.

(f) After a disposition has been approved by the shareholders under subsection (b), and at any time before the disposition has been consummated, it may be abandoned by the registered corporation without action by the shareholders, subject to any contractual rights of other parties to the disposition.

(g) A disposition of assets in the course of dissolution under subchapter 18 is not governed by this section.

(h) The assets of a direct or indirect consolidated subsidiary shall be deemed the assets of the parent corporation for the purposes of this section.

Subchapter 17

Dissenters’ Rights

§ 1221. Definitions. In this chapter:

(a) “Corporation” means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring registered corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.

(b) “Dissenter” means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under section 1222 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by sections 1224 through 1232.
(c) “Fair value,” with respect to a dissenter’s shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.

(d) “Interest” means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the registered corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.

(e) “Record shareholder” means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a registered corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a registered corporation.

(f) “Beneficial shareholder” means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.

(g) “Shareholder” means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

§ 1222. Right to dissent.

(a) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

(1) consummation of a plan of merger to which the registered corporation is a party;

(A) if shareholder approval is required for the merger by section 1203 or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger or

(B) if the registered corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under section 1204;

(2) consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the registered corporation is a party as the registered corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;
(3) consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the registered corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale;

(4) an amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter’s shares because it:

(A) alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;

(B) creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase, of the shares;

(C) alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;

(D) excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or

(E) reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under section 1074; or

(5) any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

(b) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for his shares under this subchapter may not challenge the corporate action creating his entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the registered corporation.
§ 1223. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

(a) A record shareholder may assert dissenters’ rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his name only if he dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the registered corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he asserts dissenters’ rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which he dissents and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters’ rights as to shares held on his behalf only if:

(1) he submits to the registered corporation the record shareholder’s written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters’ rights; and

(2) he does so with respect to all shares of which he is the beneficial shareholder or over which he has power to direct the vote.

(a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters’ rights under section 1222 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders’ meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters’ rights under this chapter and be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

(b) If corporate action creating dissenters’ rights under section 1222 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the registered corporation shall notify in writing all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters’ rights that the action was taken and send them the dissenters’ notice described in section 1226.

§ 1225. Notice of intent to demand payment.

(a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters’ rights under section 1222 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders’ meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters’ rights (1) must deliver to the registered corporation before the vote is taken written notice of his intent to demand payment for his shares if the proposed action is effectuated and (2) must not vote his shares in favor of the proposed action.

(b) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (a) is not entitled to payment for his shares under this subchapter.

§ 1226. Dissenters’ Notice.

(a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters’ rights under section 1222 is authorized at a shareholders’ meeting, the registered corporation shall deliver a written dissenters’ notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of section 1225.

(b) The dissenters’ notice must be sent no later than 10 days after the corporate action was taken, and must:

(1) state where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;

(2) inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;

(3) supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action and requires that the person asserting dissenters’ rights certify whether or not he acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;

(4) set a date by which the registered corporation must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the subsection (a) notice is delivered; and

(5) be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

§ 1227. Duty to demand payment.

(a) A shareholder sent a dissenters’ notice described in section 1226 must demand payment, certify whether he acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters’ notice pursuant to section 1226(b)(3), and deposit his certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.
(b) The shareholder who demands payment and deposits his share certificates under subsection (a) retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

(c) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit his share certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters’ notice, is not entitled to payment for his shares under this chapter.

§ 1228. Share restrictions.

(a) The registered corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertified shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions released under section 1230.

(b) The person for whom dissenters’ rights are asserted as to uncertified shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

§ 1229. Payment.

(a) Except as provided in section 1231, as soon as the proposed corporate action is taken, or upon receipt of a payment demand, the registered corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with section 1227 the amount the registered corporation estimates to be the fair value of his shares, plus accrued interest.

(b) The payment must be accompanied by:

(1) the registered corporation’s balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders’ equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(2) a statement of the registered corporation’s estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(3) an explanation of how the interest was calculated;
§ 1230. Failure to take action.
(a) If the registered corporation does not take the proposed action within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the registered corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertified shares.
(b) If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the registered corporation takes the proposed action, it must send a new dissenters’ notice under section 1226 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

§ 1231. After-acquired shares.
(a) A registered corporation may elect to withhold payment required by section 1229 from a dissenter unless he was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenters’ notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.
(b) To the extent the registered corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (a), after taking the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of his demand. The registered corporation shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter’s right to demand payment under section 1232.

§ 1232. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer.
(a) A dissenter may notify the registered corporation in writing of his own estimate of the fair value of his shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of his estimate (less any payment under section 1229), or reject the registered corporation’s offer under section 1231 and demand payment of the fair value of his shares and interest due, if:
(1) the dissenter believes that the amount paid under section 1325 or offered under section 1231 is less than the fair value of his shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

(2) the registered corporation fails to make payment under section 1229 within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment; or

(3) the registered corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertified shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment.

(b) A dissenter waives his right to demand payment under this section 1232 unless he notifies the registered corporation of his demand in writing under subsection (a) within 30 days after the registered corporation made or offered payment for his shares.

§ 1233. Court action.

(a) If a demand for payment under section 1232 remains unsettled, the registered corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the registered corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(b) The registered corporation shall commence the proceeding in the Supreme Court.

(c) The registered corporation shall make all dissenters whether or not residents of the Republic, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(d) The jurisdiction of the Supreme Court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (b) is plenary and exclusive. The Supreme Court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value.
The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to
it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.
(e) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment (1) for the amount, if any, by which the Supreme Court finds the fair value of his shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the registered corporation or (2) for the fair value, plus accrued interest, of his after-acquired shares for which the registered corporation elected to withhold payment under section 1231.

§ 1234. Court costs and counsel fees.

(a) The Supreme Court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under section 1233 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court shall assess the costs against the registered corporation, except that the Supreme Court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the Supreme Court finds equitable, to the extent the Supreme Court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under section 1232.

(b) The Supreme Court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the Supreme Court finds equitable:

   (1) against the registered corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the Supreme Court finds the registered corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of sections 1224 through 1232; or

   (2) against either the registered corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the Supreme Court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(c) If the Supreme Court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the registered corporation, the Supreme Court may award to those counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.
§ 1241. Dissolution by incorporators or initial directors. Dissolution by Incorporators or Initial Directors. A majority of the incorporators or initial directors of a registered corporation that has not issued shares or has not commenced business may dissolve the registered corporation by delivering to the registrar for filing articles of dissolution that set forth:

(a) the name of the registered corporation;
(b) the date of its incorporation;
(c) either:
   (1) that none of the registered corporation’s shares has been issued; or
   (2) that the registered corporation has not commenced business;
(d) that no debt of the registered corporation remains unpaid;
(e) that the net assets of the registered corporation remaining after winding up have been distributed to the shareholders, if shares were issued; and
(f) that a majority of the incorporators or initial directors authorized the dissolution.

§ 1242. Dissolution by board of directors and shareholders.

(a) A registered corporation’s board of directors may propose dissolution for submission to the shareholders.
(b) For a proposal to dissolve to be adopted:
   (1) the board of directors must recommend dissolution to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders; and
   (2) the shareholders entitled to vote must approve the proposal to dissolve as provided in subsection (e).
(c) The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposal for dissolution on any basis.
(d) The registered corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders’ meeting. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider dissolving the registered corporation.

(e) Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (c) require a greater vote, a greater number of shares to be present, or a vote by voting groups, adoption of the proposal to dissolve shall require the approval of the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast exists.

§ 1243. Articles of dissolution.

(a) At any time after dissolution is authorized, the registered corporation may dissolve by delivering to the registrar for filing articles of dissolution setting forth:

(1) the name of the registered corporation;

(2) the date dissolution was authorized; and

(3) if dissolution was approved by the shareholders, a statement that the proposal to dissolve was duly approved by the shareholders in the manner required by this chapter and by the articles of incorporation.

(b) A registered corporation is dissolved upon the effective date of its articles of dissolution.

(c) For purposes of this subchapter, “dissolved registered corporation” means a registered corporation whose articles of dissolution have become effective and includes a successor entity to which the remaining assets of the registered corporation are transferred subject to its liabilities for purposes of liquidation.

§ 1244. Revocation of dissolution.

(a) A registered corporation may revoke its dissolution within 120 days of its effective date.

(b) Revocation of dissolution must be authorized in the same manner as the dissolution was authorized unless that authorization permitted revocation by action of the board. of directors alone, in which event the board of directors may revoke the dissolution without shareholder action.

(c) after the revocation of dissolution is authorized, the registered corporation may revoke the dissolution by delivering to the registrar for filing articles of revocation of dissolution, together with a copy of its articles of dissolution, that set forth:

(1) the name of the registered corporation;
(2) the effective date of the dissolution that was revoked;
(3) the date that the revocation of dissolution was authorized;
(4) if the registered corporation’s board of directors, or incorporators revoked, the dissolution, a statement to that effect;
(5) if the registered corporation’s board of directors revoked a dissolution authorized by the shareholders, a statement that revocation was permitted by action by the board of directors alone pursuant to that authorization; and
(6) if shareholder action was required to revoke the dissolution, the information required by section 1243(a)(3).

(d) Revocation of dissolution is effective upon the effective date of the articles of revocation of dissolution.

(e) When the revocation of dissolution is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the dissolution and the registered corporation resumes carrying on its business as if dissolution had never occurred.

§ 1245. Effect of dissolution.

(a) A dissolved registered corporation continues its corporate existence but may not carry on any business except that appropriate to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs, including:

(1) collecting its assets;
(2) disposing of its properties that will not be distributed in kind to its shareholders;
(3) discharging or making provision for discharging its liabilities;

(4) distributing its remaining property among its shareholders according to their interests; and

(5) doing every other act necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs.

(b) Dissolution of a registered corporation does not:

(1) transfer title to the registered corporation’s property;

(2) prevent transfer of its shares or securities, although the authorization to dissolve may provide for closing the registered corporation’s share transfer records;

(3) subject its directors or officers to standards of conduct different from those prescribed in subchapters 10 and 11;

(4) change quorum or voting requirements for its board of directors or shareholders; change provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its directors or officers or both; or change provisions for amending its bylaws;

(5) prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the registered corporation in its corporate name;

(6) abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the registered corporation on the effective date of dissolution; or

(7) terminate the authority of the registered agent of the registered corporation.

§ 1246. Known claims against dissolved registered corporation.

(a) A dissolved registered corporation may dispose of the known claims against it by notifying its known claimants in writing of the dissolution at any time after its effective date.

(b) The written notice must:

(1) describe information that must be included in a claim;

(2) provide a mailing address where a claim may be sent;
(3) state the deadline, which may not be fewer than 120 days from the effective date of the written notice, by which the dissolved registered corporation must receive the claim; and

(4) state that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.

(c) A claim against the dissolved registered corporation is barred:

(1) if a claimant who was given written notice under subsection (b) does not deliver the claim to the dissolved registered corporation by the deadline;

(2) if a claimant whose claim was rejected by the dissolved registered corporation does not commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within 90 days from the effective date of the rejection notice.

(d) For purposes of this section, “claim” does not include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

§ 1247. Unknown claims against dissolved registered corporation.

(a) A dissolved registered corporation may also publish notice of its dissolution and request that persons with claims against the dissolved registered corporation present them in accordance with the notice.

(b) The notice must:

(1) be published one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the dissolved registered corporation’s principal office (or, if none in this state, its registered office) is or was last located;

(2) describe the information that must be included in a claim and provide a mailing address where the claim may be sent; and

(3) state that a claim against the dissolved registered corporation will be barred unless a proceeding to enforce the claim is commenced within three years after the publication of the notice.

(c) If the dissolved registered corporation publishes a newspaper notice in accordance with subsection (b), the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the claimant... commences a proceeding to enforce the claim against the dissolved registered corporation within three years after the publication date of the newspaper notice:

(1) a claimant who was not given written notice under section 1246;

(2) a claimant whose claim was timely sent to the dissolved registered corporation but not acted on;

(3) a claimant whose claim is contingent or based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

(d) A claim not barred by section 1246(b) or 1247(c) may be enforced:

(1) against the dissolved registered corporation, to the extent of its undistributed assets; or

(2) except as provided in section 1248(d), if the assets have been distributed in liquidation, against a shareholder of the dissolved registered corporation to the extent of the shareholder’s pro rata share of the claim or the corporate assets distributed to the shareholder in liquidation, whichever is less, but a shareholder’s total liability for all claims under this section 1247 may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the shareholder.

§ 1248. Court proceedings.

(a) A dissolved registered corporation that has published a notice under section 1247 may file an application with the Supreme Court for a determination of the amount and form of security to be provided for payment of claims that are contingent or have not been made known to the dissolved registered corporation or that are based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution but that, based on the facts known to the dissolved registered corporation, are reasonably estimated to arise after the effective date of dissolution. Provision need not be made for any claim that is or is reasonably anticipated to be barred under section 1247(c).

(b) Within 10 days after the filing of the application, notice of the proceeding shall be given by the dissolved registered corporation to each claimant holding a contingent claim whose contingent claim is shown on the records of the dissolved registered corporation.
(c) The Supreme Court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent all claimants whose identities are unknown in any proceeding brought under this section 1247. The reasonable fees and expenses of such guardian, including all reasonable expert witness fees, shall be paid by the dissolved registered corporation.

(d) Provision by the dissolved registered corporation for security in the amount and the form ordered by the Supreme Court under section 1248(a) shall satisfy the dissolved registered corporation’s obligations with respect to claims that are contingent, have not been made known to the dissolved registered corporation or are based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution, and such claims may not be enforced against a shareholder who received assets in liquidation.

§ 1249. Director duties.

(a) Directors shall cause the dissolved registered corporation to discharge or make reasonable provision for the payment of claims and make distributions of assets to shareholders after payment or provision for claims.

(b) Directors of a dissolved registered corporation which has disposed of claims under section 1246, 1247, or 1248 shall not be liable for breach of section 1249(a) with respect to claims against the dissolved registered corporation that are barred or satisfied under section 1246, 1247, or 1248.

§ 1250. Grounds for administrative dissolution. The registrar may commence a proceeding under section 1251 to administratively dissolve a registered corporation if:

(a) the registered corporation does not pay within 60 days after they are due any franchise taxes or penalties imposed by this chapter or other law;

(b) the registered corporation does not deliver its annual report to the registrar within 60 days after it is due;

(c) the registered corporation is without a registered agent or registered office in the Republic for 60 days or more;
(d) the registered corporation does not notify the registrar within 60 days that its registered agent or registered office has been changed, that its registered agent has resigned, or that its registered office has been discontinued;
(e) the registered corporation’s period of duration stated in its articles of incorporation expires;
(f) the registered corporation refuses, without a showing of good cause, to produce books of accounts, papers, or documents within 60 days after an order by the registrar for the production thereof; or
(g) an authorized person acting for the registered corporation signs a false document, as set forth in section 1011.

§ 1251. Procedure for and effect of administrative dissolution.
(a) If the registrar determines that one or more grounds exist under section 1250 for dissolving a registered corporation, the registrar shall serve the registered corporation with written notice of his determination under section 1064.
(b) If the registered corporation does not correct each ground for dissolution or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the registrar that each ground determined by the registrar does not exist within 60 days after service of the notice is perfected under section 1064, the registrar shall administratively dissolve the registered corporation by signing a certificate of dissolution that recites the ground or grounds for dissolution and its effective date. The registrar shall file the original of the certificate and serve a copy on the registered corporation under section 1064.
(c) A registered corporation administratively dissolved continues its corporate existence but may not carry on any business except that necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs under section 1245 and notify claimants under sections 1246 and 1247.
(d) The administrative dissolution of a registered corporation does not terminate the authority of its registered agent.

§ 1252. Reinstatement following administrative dissolution.
(a) A registered corporation administratively dissolved under section 1251 may apply to the registrar for reinstatement within two years after the effective date of dissolution. The application must:

(1) recite the name of the registered corporation and the effective date of its administrative dissolution;

(2) state that the ground or grounds for dissolution either did not exist or have been eliminated;

(3) state that the registered corporation’s name satisfies the requirements of section 1051; and

(4) contain a certificate from the Bureau of Revenue, Customs and Taxation reciting that all taxes owed by the registered corporation have been paid.

(b) If the registrar determines that the application contains the information required by subsection (a) and that the information is correct, the registrar shall cancel the certificate of dissolution and prepare a certificate of reinstatement that recites the determination of the registrar and the effective date of reinstatement, file the original of the certificate, and serve a copy on the registered corporation under section 1064.

(c) When the reinstatement is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the administrative dissolution and the registered corporation resumes carrying on its business as if the administrative dissolution had never occurred.

§ 1253. Appeal from denial of reinstatement.

(a) If the registrar denies a registered corporation’s application for reinstatement following administrative dissolution, the registrar shall serve the registered corporation under section 1064 with a written notice that explains the reason or reasons for denial.

(b) The registered corporation may appeal the denial of reinstatement to the Supreme Court within 30 days after service of the notice of denial is perfected. The registered corporation appeals by petitioning the Supreme Court to set aside the dissolution and attaching to the petition copies of the registrar’s certificate of dissolution, the registered corporation’s application for reinstatement, and the registrar’s notice of denial.

(c) The Supreme Court summarily may order the registrar to reinstate the dissolved registered corporation or may take other action the Supreme Court considers appropriate.

(d) The Supreme Court’s final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

§ 1254. Grounds for judicial dissolution. The Supreme Court may dissolve a registered corporation:

(a) in a proceeding by the Officer of the Attorney General if it is established that:

(1) the registered corporation obtained its articles of incorporation through fraud; or

(2) the registered corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority confferred upon it by law;

(b) in a proceeding by a shareholder if it is established that:

(1) the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and irreparable injury to the registered corporation is threatened or being suffered, or the business and affairs of the registered corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally, because of the deadlock;

(2) the directors or those in control of the registered corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, or fraudulent;

(3) the shareholders are deadlocked in voting power and have failed, for a period that includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired; or

(4) the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted;

c) in a proceeding by a creditor if it is established that:
(1) the creditor’s claim has been reduced to judgment, the execution on the judgment returned unsatisfied, and the registered corporation is insolvent; or

(2) the registered corporation has admitted in writing that the creditor’s claim is due and owing and the registered corporation is insolvent; or

(d) in a proceeding by the registered corporation to have its voluntary dissolution continued under court supervision.

§ 1255. Procedure for judicial dissolution.

(a) Venue for a proceeding by the Office of the Attorney General to dissolve a registered corporation lies in the Supreme Court. Venue for a proceeding brought by any other party named in section 1254 also lies in the Supreme Court.

(b) It is not necessary to make shareholders parties to a proceeding to dissolve a registered corporation unless relief is sought against them individually.

(c) The Supreme Court in a proceeding brought to dissolve a registered corporation may issue injunctions, appoint a receiver or custodian pendente lite with all powers and duties the Supreme Court directs, take other action required to preserve the corporate assets wherever located, and carry on the business of the registered corporation until a full hearing can be held.

(d) Within 10 days of the commencement of a proceeding under section 1254(b) to dissolve a registered corporation that has no shares listed on a national securities exchange or regularly traded in a market maintained by one or more members of a national securities exchange, the registered corporation must send to all shareholders, other than the petitioner, a notice stating that the shareholders are entitled to avoid the dissolution of the registered corporation by electing to purchase the petitioner’s shares under section 1258 and accompanied by a copy of section 1258.

§ 1256. Receivership or custodianship.

(a) The Supreme Court in a judicial proceeding brought to dissolve a registered corporation may appoint one or more receivers to wind up and liquidate, or one or more custodians to manage, the business and affairs of the registered corporation. The Supreme Court shall hold a hearing, after notifying all parties to the proceeding and any interested persons designated by the Supreme Court, before appointing a receiver or custodian. The Supreme Court appointing a receiver or custodian has exclusive jurisdiction over the registered corporation and all of its property wherever located.

(b) The Supreme Court may appoint an individual or a registered, domestic, or foreign corporation (authorized to transact business in the Republic) as a receiver or custodian. The Supreme Court may require the receiver or custodian to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the Supreme Court directs.

(c) The Supreme Court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver or custodian in its appointing order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers:

the receiver:

(A) may dispose of all or any part of the assets of the registered corporation wherever located, at a public or private sale, if authorized by the Supreme Court; and

(B) may sue and defend in his own name as receiver of the registered corporation in all courts of the Republic;

(2) the custodian may exercise all of the powers of the registered corporation, through or in place of its board of directors or officers, to the extent necessary to manage the affairs of the registered corporation in the best interests of its shareholders and creditors.

(d) The Supreme Court during a receivership may redesignate the receiver a custodian, and during a custodianship may redesignate the custodian a receiver, if doing so is in the best interests of the registered corporation, its shareholders, and creditors.

(e) The Supreme Court from time to time during the receivership or custodianship may order compensation paid and expense disbursements or reimbursements made to the receiver or custodian and his counsel from the assets of the registered corporation or proceeds from the sale of the assets.

§ 1257. Decree of Dissolution.

(a) If after a hearing the Supreme Court determines that one or more grounds for judicial dissolution described in section 1254 exist, it may enter a decree dissolving the registered corporation and specifying the effective date of the dissolution, and the clerk of the Supreme Court shall deliver a certified copy of the decree to the registrar, who shall file it.

(b) After entering the decree of dissolution, the Supreme Court shall direct the winding up and liquidation of the registered corporation’s business and affairs in accordance with section 1245 and the notification of claimants in accordance with sections 1246 and 1247.

§ 1258. (Reserved)

§ 1259. Deposit with National Treasury. Assets of a dissolved registered corporation that should be transferred to a creditor, claimant, or shareholder of the registered corporation who cannot be found or who is not competent to receive them shall be reduced to cash and deposited with the National Treasury or other appropriate national government official for safekeeping. When the creditor, claimant, or shareholder furnishes satisfactory proof of entitlement to the amount deposited, the National Treasury or other appropriate national government official shall pay him or his representative that amount.

Subchapter 19

[Reserved]

Subchapter 20

Records and Reports

§ 1271. Corporate records.

(a) A registered corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of its shareholders and board of directors, a record of all actions taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by a committee of the board of directors in place of the board of directors on behalf of the registered corporation.

–124–
(b) A registered corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

(c) A registered corporation or its agent shall maintain a record of its shareholders, in a form that permits preparation of a list of the names and addresses of all shareholders, in alphabetical order by class of shares showing the number and class of shares held by each.

(d) A registered corporation shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

(e) A registered corporation shall keep a copy of the following records at its principal office:

(1) its articles or restated articles of incorporation and all amendments to them currently in effect;

(2) its bylaws or restated bylaws and all amendments to them currently in effect;

(3) resolutions adopted by its board of directors creating one or more classes or series of shares, and fixing their relative rights, preferences, and limitations, if shares issued pursuant to those resolutions are outstanding;

(4) the minutes of all shareholders’ meetings, and records of all action taken by shareholders without a meeting, for the past three years;

(5) all written communications to shareholders generally within the past three years, including the financial statements furnished for the past three years under section 1277;

(6) a list of the names and business addresses of its current directors and officers; and

(7) its most recent annual report delivered to the registrar under section 1622.

§ 1272. Inspection of records by shareholders.

(a) A shareholder of a registered corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at the registered corporation’s principal office, any of the records of the registered corporation described in section 1271(e) if he gives the registered corporation written...
A shareholder of a registered corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at a reasonable location specified by the registered corporation, any of the following records of the registered corporation if the shareholder meets the requirements of subsection (c) and gives the registered corporation written notice of his demand at least five business days before the date on which he wishes to inspect and copy:

1. excerpts from minutes of any meeting of the board of directors, records of any action of a committee of the board of directors while acting in place of the board of directors on behalf of the registered corporation, minutes of any meeting of the shareholders, and records of action taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, to the extent not subject to inspection under section 1602(a);
2. accounting records of the registered corporation; and
3. the record of shareholders.

A shareholder may inspect and copy the records described in subsection (b) only if:

1. his demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose;
2. he describes with reasonable particularity his purpose and the records he desires to inspect; and
3. the records are directly connected with his purpose.

The right of inspection granted by this section 1272 may not be abolished or limited by a registered corporation’s articles of incorporation or bylaws.

This section 1272 does not affect:

1. the right of a shareholder to inspect records under section 1099 or, if the shareholder is in litigation with the registered corporation, to the same extent as any other litigant;
(2) the power of the Supreme Court, independently of this chapter, to compel the production of corporate records for examination.

(f) For purposes of this section 1272, “shareholder” includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or by a nominee on his behalf.

§ 1273. Scope of inspection right.

(a) A shareholder’s agent or attorney has the same inspection and copying rights as the shareholder represented.

(b) The right to copy records under section 1272 includes, if reasonable, the right to receive copies by xerographic or other means, including copies through an electronic transmission if available and so requested by the shareholder.

(c) The registered corporation may comply at its expense with a shareholder’s demand to inspect the record of shareholders under section 1272(b)(3) by providing the shareholder with a list of shareholders that was compiled no earlier than the date of the shareholder’s demand.

(d) The registered corporation may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of any documents provided to the shareholder. The charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production, reproduction or transmission of the records.

§ 1274. Court-ordered inspection.

(a) If a registered corporation does not allow a shareholder who complies with section 1272(a) to inspect and copy any records required by that subsection to be available for inspection, the Supreme Court summarily may order inspection and copying of the records demanded at the registered corporation’s expense upon application of the shareholder.

(b) If a registered corporation does not within a reasonable time allow a shareholder to inspect and copy any other record, the shareholder who complies with sections 1272(b) and
(c) may apply to the Supreme Court for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded. The Supreme Court shall dispose of an application under this subsection on an expedited basis.
If the Supreme Court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it shall also order the registered corporation to pay the shareholder’s costs (including reasonable counsel fees) incurred to obtain the order unless the registered corporation proves that it refused inspection in good faith because it had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the shareholder to inspect the records demanded.

If the Supreme Court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it may impose reasonable restrictions on the use or distribution of the records by the demanding shareholder.

§ 1275. Inspection of records by directors.

(a) A director of a registered corporation is entitled to inspect and copy the books, records and documents of the registered corporation at any reasonable time to the extent reasonably related to the performance of the director’s duties as a director, including duties as a member of a committee, but not for any other purpose or in any manner that would violate any duty to the registered corporation.

(b) The Supreme Court may order inspection and copying of the books, records, and documents at the registered corporation’s expense, upon application of a director who has been refused such inspection rights, unless the registered corporation establishes that the director is not entitled to such inspection rights. The Supreme Court shall dispose of an application under this subsection on an expedited basis.

(c) If an order is issued, the Supreme Court may include provisions protecting the registered corporation from undue burden or expense, and prohibiting the director from using information obtained upon exercise of the inspection rights in a manner that would violate a duty to the registered corporation, and it also may order the registered corporation to reimburse the director for the director’s costs including reasonable counsel fees incurred in connection with the application.

§ 1276. Exception to notice requirement.
Senate Bill No.___________

(a) Whenever notice is required to be given under any provision of this chapter to any shareholder, such notice shall not be required to be given if:

(1) Notice of two consecutive annual meetings, and all notices of meetings during the period between such two consecutive annual meetings, have been sent to such shareholder at such shareholder’s address as shown on the records of the registered corporation and have been returned undeliverable; or

(2) All, but not less than two, payments of dividends on securities during a twelve-month period, or two consecutive payments of dividends on securities during a period of more than twelve months, have been sent to such shareholder at such shareholder’s address as shown on the records of the registered corporation and have been returned undeliverable.

(b) If any such shareholder shall deliver to the registered corporation a written notice setting forth such shareholder’s then-current address, the requirement that notice be given to such shareholder shall be reinstated.

§ 1277. Financial statements for shareholders.

(a) A registered corporation shall furnish its shareholders annual financial statements, which may be consolidated or combined statements of the registered corporation and one or more of its subsidiaries, as appropriate, that include a balance sheet as of the end of the fiscal year, an income statement for that year, and a statement of changes in shareholders’ equity for the year unless that information appears elsewhere in the financial statements. If financial statements are prepared for the registered corporation on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles, the annual financial statements must also be prepared on that basis.

(b) If the annual financial statements are reported upon by a public accountant, his report must accompany them. If not, the statements must be accompanied by a statement of the president or the person responsible for the registered corporation’s accounting records:

(1) stating his reasonable belief whether the statements were prepared on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles and, if not, describing the basis of preparation; and
(2) describing any respects in which the statements were not prepared on a basis of accounting consistent with the statements prepared for the preceding year.

c) A registered corporation shall mail the annual financial statements to each shareholder within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year. Thereafter, on written request from a shareholder who was not mailed the statements, the registered corporation shall mail him the latest financial statements.

§ 1278. Annual report for registrar.

(a) Each registered corporation shall deliver to the registrar for filing an annual report that sets forth:

(1) the name of the registered corporation;

(2) the address of its registered office and the name of its registered agent at that office in the Republic;

(3) the address of its principal office;

(4) the names and business addresses of its directors and principal officers;

(5) a brief description of the nature of its business;

(6) the total number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series, if any, within each class;

(7) the total number of issued and outstanding shares, itemized by class and series, if any, within each class;

(8) the total capitalization of the registered corporation, which meets the dollar amount requirement of section 1033(a)(5); and

(9) a statement that no current director, current principal officer or current ten-percent shareholder has been convicted or pleaded nolo contendere within the last five years, measured from the later of the date of parole or the date of conviction, before the filing of the annual report of a felony involving fraud or deceit, including but not limited to money laundering, tax evasion, securities fraud, mail or wire fraud, forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, or conspiracy to defraud. If a registered corporation cannot make the statement required by this subsection 1278(a)(9), then the corporation instead shall file with its annual report a detailed explanation of why it cannot do so.

Making a false statement in an annual report by act or omission, may be grounds for administrative dissolution of the registered corporation by the registrar.

(b) Information in the annual report must be current as of the date the annual report is executed on behalf of the registered corporation.

(c) The first annual report must be delivered to the registrar between January 1 and April 1 of the year following the calendar year in which a registered corporation was incorporated. Subsequent annual reports must be delivered to the registrar between January 1 and April 1 of the following calendar years.

(d) If an annual report does not contain the information required by this section 1278, the registrar shall promptly notify the reporting registered corporation in writing and return the report to it for correction. If the report is corrected to contain the information required by this section 1278 and delivered to the registrar within 30 days after the effective date of notice, it is deemed to be timely filed.

§ 1279. Other reports to shareholders.

(a) If a registered corporation indemnifies or advances expenses to a director under section 1152, 1153, 1154, or 1155 in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the registered corporation, then the registered corporation shall report the indemnification or advance in writing to the shareholders with or before the notice of the next shareholders’ meeting.

(b) If a registered corporation issues or authorizes the issuance of shares for promissory notes or for promises to render services in the future, then the registered corporation shall report in writing to the shareholders the number of shares authorized or issued, and the consideration received by the registered corporation, with or before the notice of the next shareholders’ meeting.

Subchapter 21
§ 1281. Severability. If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of the chapter are severable.”

Section 3. Authorization and Appropriation of Funds. The amount of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) is hereby authorized to be appropriated and is appropriated from local revenue for funding of the office of the registrar.

Section 4. Effective Date. This Act shall take effect upon its approval by the President of the Republic of Palau or upon its becoming law without such approval, except as otherwise provided by law.

Date:__________ Introduced by:  _______________________

Senator Alfonso Diaz

Senator Johnny Reklai