London Program Committee:
Tony Bugg (Co-Chair)
Nick Segal (Co-Chair)
Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to extend a warm invitation to you to visit London for the seventeenth annual conference of the International Insolvency Institute. This will be our first conference in the United Kingdom. The London Conference is dedicated to the memory of III Founder, Bruce Leonard, who passed away in early 2017.

The primary hotel venue is the Rosewood Hotel, in the heart of the Legal District. We are also holding the Next Gen Program at PwC, courtesy of Mike Jervis and the Judicial and Academic programs at Freshfields, courtesy of Nick Segal. The welcome reception and dinner will be at the world renowned Tate Modern Gallery and the Legendary dinner is being held in The Middle Temple Hall, where we will be entertained by the National Youth Theatre of Great Britain who are performing extracts from Shakespeare’s Twelfth Night. Middle Temple Hall is the venue where that play was first performed before Queen Elizabeth I in 1602.

The Conference will be opened by a keynote speech from Lord Neuberger, President of the Supreme Court. The London venue is highly prescient with the UK due to give notice to leave the European Union in March 2017. There will be an in depth analysis of the impact on international insolvencies involving UK companies, looking at Brexit from the point of view of the UK, the EU, the US and other major jurisdictions. There will also be a session involving simultaneous hearings in two jurisdictions concerning a primary insolvency and recognition. The session will be taken by Judges from each of the jurisdictions. In addition to sessions focusing on recent legal developments there will be a session on the UNCITRAL Model law that will go into force shortly before the conference.

Additionally, we have some outstanding optional tours including a cruise on the River Thames, visits to the British Museum, Hampton Court Palace, Westminster Abbay, Windsor Castle and Royal Ascot Race Meeting.

Please register and make your travel arrangements now. We look forward to seeing you in London next June for what will be a truly memorable conference.

The Conference Hotels include the 5 star Rosewood Hotel, the 4 Star Hoxton Holborn, and the 3 Star Holiday Inn London Bloomsbury. The hotels are conveniently located within walking distance of each other. The Legendary Dinner and Presentation of Awards will be held at Middle Temple Hall, located in the heart of London’s legal quarter. It is one of the four ancient inns of Court. It was built between 1562 and 1573 and remains virtually unchanged to this day, having survived the Great Fire of London in 1666 and both World Wars. Middle Temple continues to service the legal profession today, and also houses some of the most imposing event space in London available for formal dinners. Then dinner will be held in the Great Hall and the Parliament Chamber.

Conference registration is now available by visiting the III website at www.iiiglobal.org or through this link. In addition, a complete listing of all optional tours can be found through the online registration, so be sure and share with guests who are traveling with you.

NextGen Leadership Program Class I-VI in conjunction with NextGen Executive Director, Franca Tibando, is pleased to announce the III 2017 NextGen Leadership Conference and the Induction of Class VI of the NextGen Program as well as some unique NextGen social events that are a must-do for all NextGen Classes I-VI. The Program will take place in London, England on Sunday June 18, 2017 preceding the III’s 17th Annual Conference (June 19-20, 2017) and will be held in the offices of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP courtesy of III Member Michael Jervis. If you are a NextGen member, the NextGen Program brochure will be available in early 2017. Contact Franca at ftibando@millertonson.com, 416-595-2965, with any questions.

Still have questions? Please contact the Executive Director of the III, Shari Bedker at sbedker@iiiglobal.org, or 011 (434) 939-6003 or visit the III website. We hope to see you in London!

Opening Reception and Dinner at Tate Modern
We are pleased to announce that the Blavatnik Building Levels 4 and 6 of the world famous Tate Modern Museum has been reserved exclusively for III members and delegates on Sunday, June 18, with many thanks to EY for their support in the arrangements. Attendees will be able to view the Blavatnik Building Level 4 exhibits. Tate Modern houses international Contemporary and Modern Art. Tate Modern is one of the largest museums of modern and contemporary art in the world. It is Britain’s national museum of modern and contemporary art from around the world and is housed in the former Bankside Power Station on the banks of the Thames. The awe-inspiring Turbine Hall runs the length of the entire building and you can see amazing work for free by artists such as Cézanne, Bonnard, Matisse, Picasso, Rothko, Dalí, Pollock, Warhol and Bourgeois. If you would like to view the rest of the museum before the reception, there is no fee, but the museum will be closed from 18:00-19:00 to allow set up time for our event, but you may either explore the beautiful surrounding area or the museum has told us the Terrace Bar in the Blavatnik Building will be open for refreshments from 18:00-19:00.

Tate is a 30 minute walk from the hotels, but a very nice walk past Lincoln’s Inn, down the Strand to St. Paul’s and a footbridge over the River Thames to the gallery. Please use the Blavatnik Entrance when you arrive for the reception. Otherwise please meet in the lobby of the Rosewood hotel at 18:45 for bus transportation. Bus transportation will be provided after the dinner back to the Rosewood beginning at 22:00. III members $175/$87 judicial and academics, Non-members $200, maximum 250 participants.
