III NEXTGEN LEADERSHIP PROGRAM CLASS – VII, NEW YORK

DESCRIPTION AND STRUCTURE

1. Nominees to the III NextGen Leadership Program are insolvency practitioners and academics with between 6 and 12 years experience and involvement in the insolvency area who are recommended and nominated by Members of the III.
2. Membership in the III NextGen Leadership Program will be for a period of five years to include five III Annual Conferences. Membership dues for members of the III NextGen Leadership Program are US$250 per year. There will be a maximum of 25 nominees elected to the III NextGen Leadership Program in any one year including the Medal Winners in the Competition for the III Prize in International Insolvency Studies.
3. There will be a maximum of 125 members worldwide in the III NextGen Leadership Program.
4. Class VII of the NextGen Leadership Program which will be inducted in New York is limited to 25 members including Medal Winners in the Competition for III 2018 Prize in International Insolvency Studies.
5. Nominees must be nominated by Members of the III and approved by the III Board of Directors. A Member of the III may nominate one potential NextGen member to Class VII from their own firm or other organizations. (A CV, electronic photo and letter of support setting out a brief description of the interest and experience of the potential member must be included with the nomination). Inducted members of the Program will be listed in the III Membership Directory.
6. Class VII is expected to have a full Educational Program in New York on Sunday, September 23, 2018 immediately prior to the full III Conference (September 24-25, 2018). The Class VII Educational Program will feature Panels led by full Members of the III including, in particular, leading Members from a variety of different countries. There will be ticketed Conference dinner for NextGen members and other social functions will be arranged by the NextGen members.
7. NextGen members will enjoy a discounted registration fee for the full III Conference. As Delegates to the III Conference, NextGen members will be able to register for the III's Legendary New York Dinner on the evening of Monday, September 24, 2018 at a spectacular New York venue.
8. The III NextGen Leadership Program is presented on an annual basis. A fresh nomination process is undertaken for each annual Class and Members of the Program from previous Classes are invited to take part in all NextGen social events and occasions.
9. Current members of the III NextGen Leadership Program will be eligible to participate in prospective III Regional Conferences that may be organized as determined by the Organizing Committee for each such Conference.
